

PAPER ADVENTURES

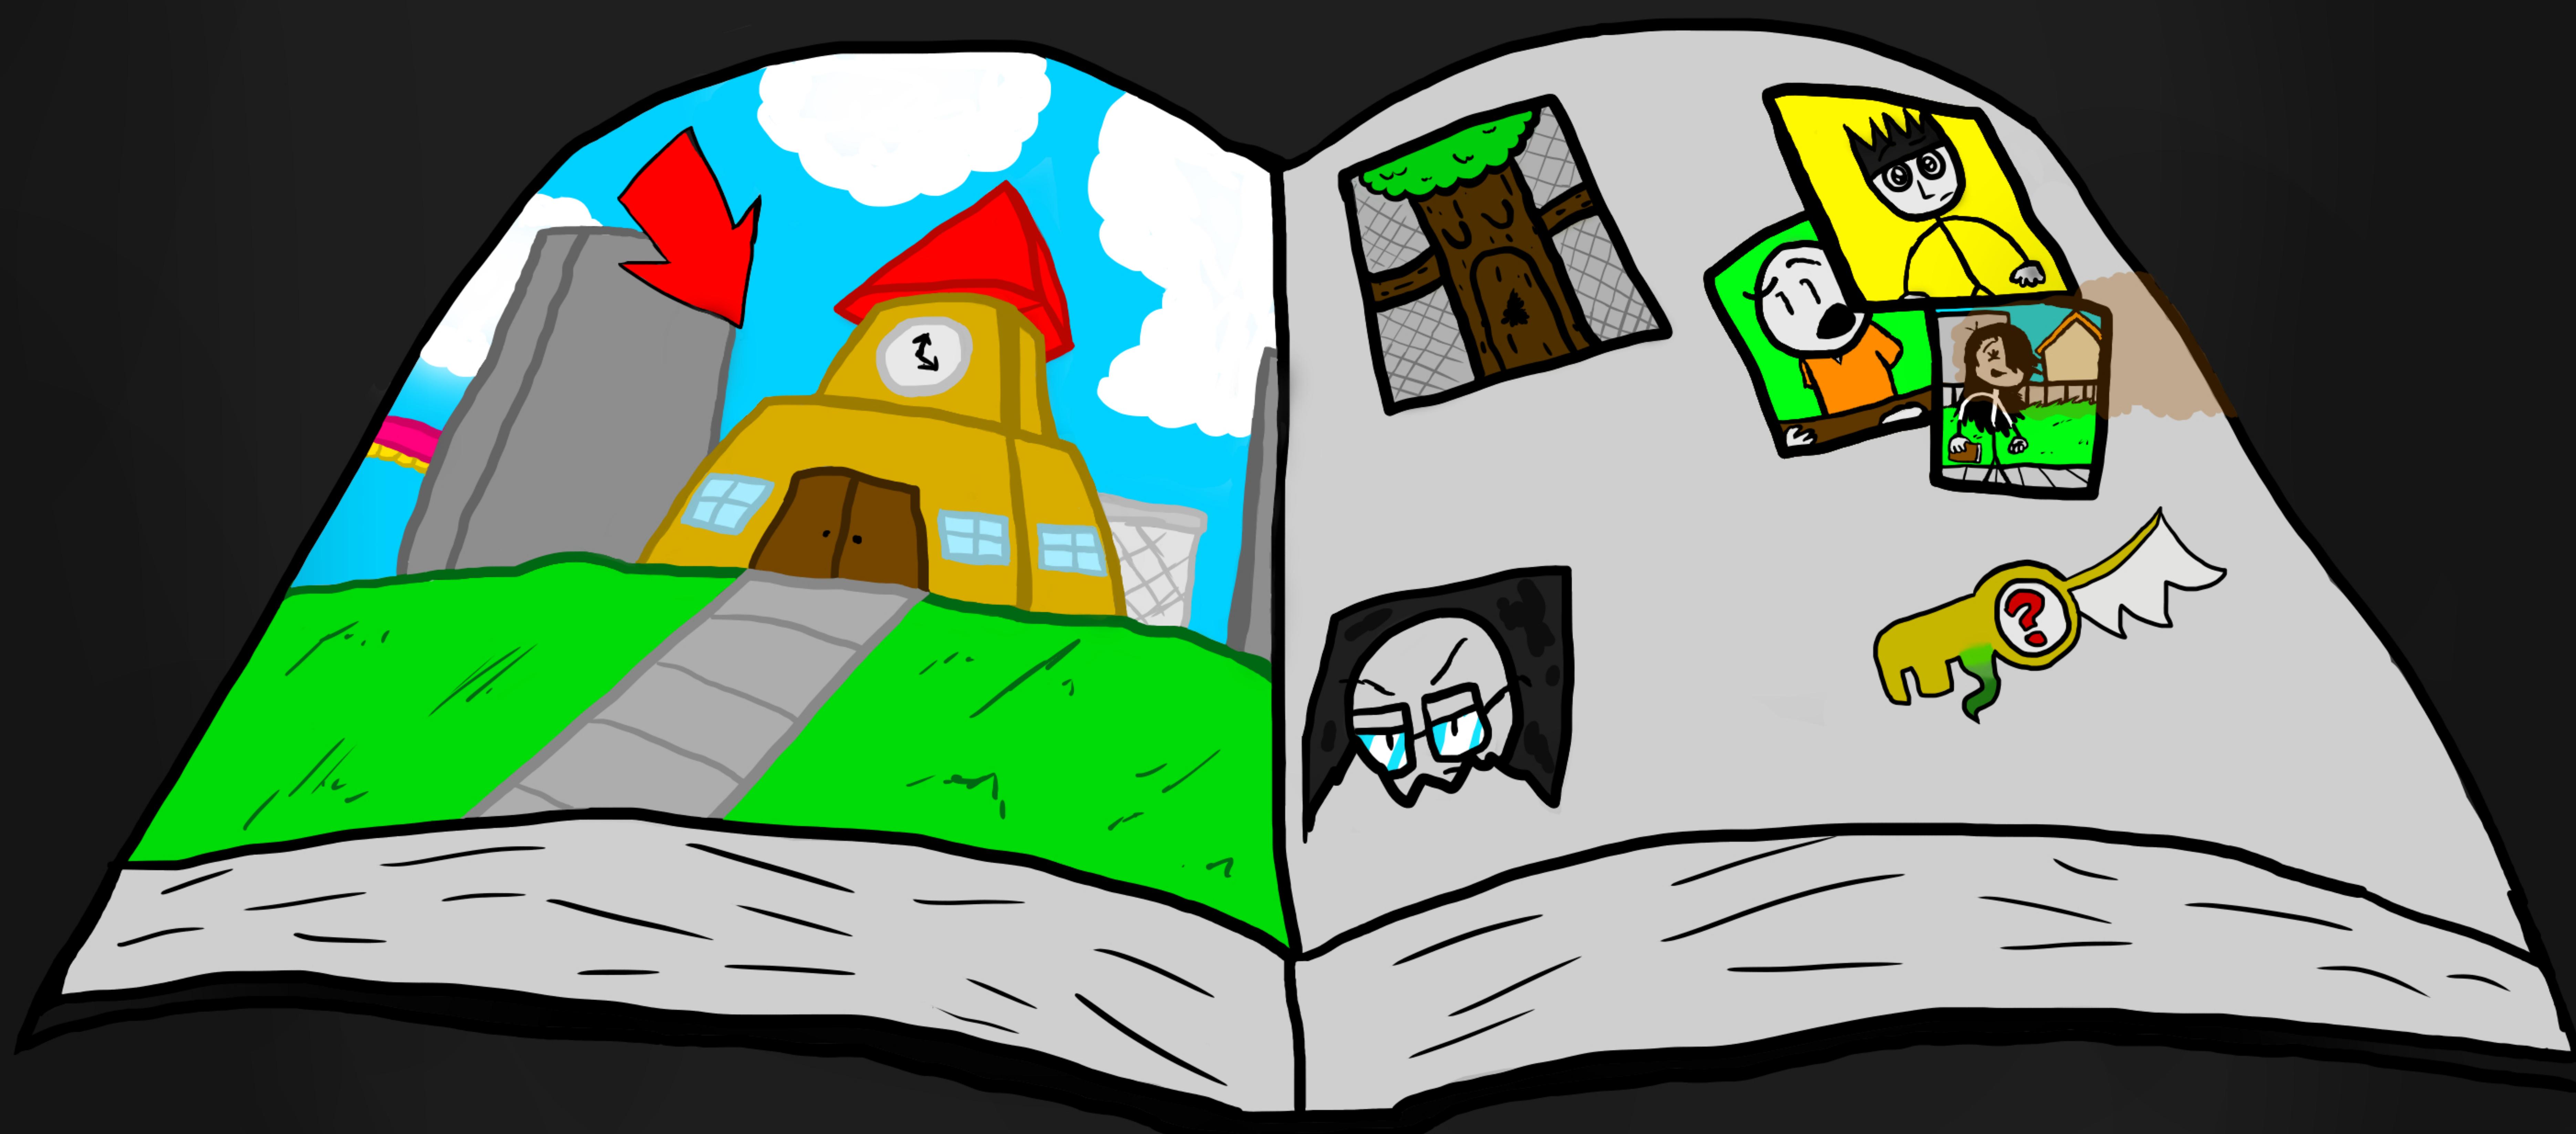

Paper Adventures

Story and
Art by Aaron Tan

Chapter 1, Introduction

Ah, Fantasy.
One of the most
well-known
genres in literature.

It has monsters,
myths, and
adventures.

Today, I'm
about to present
you a new story.

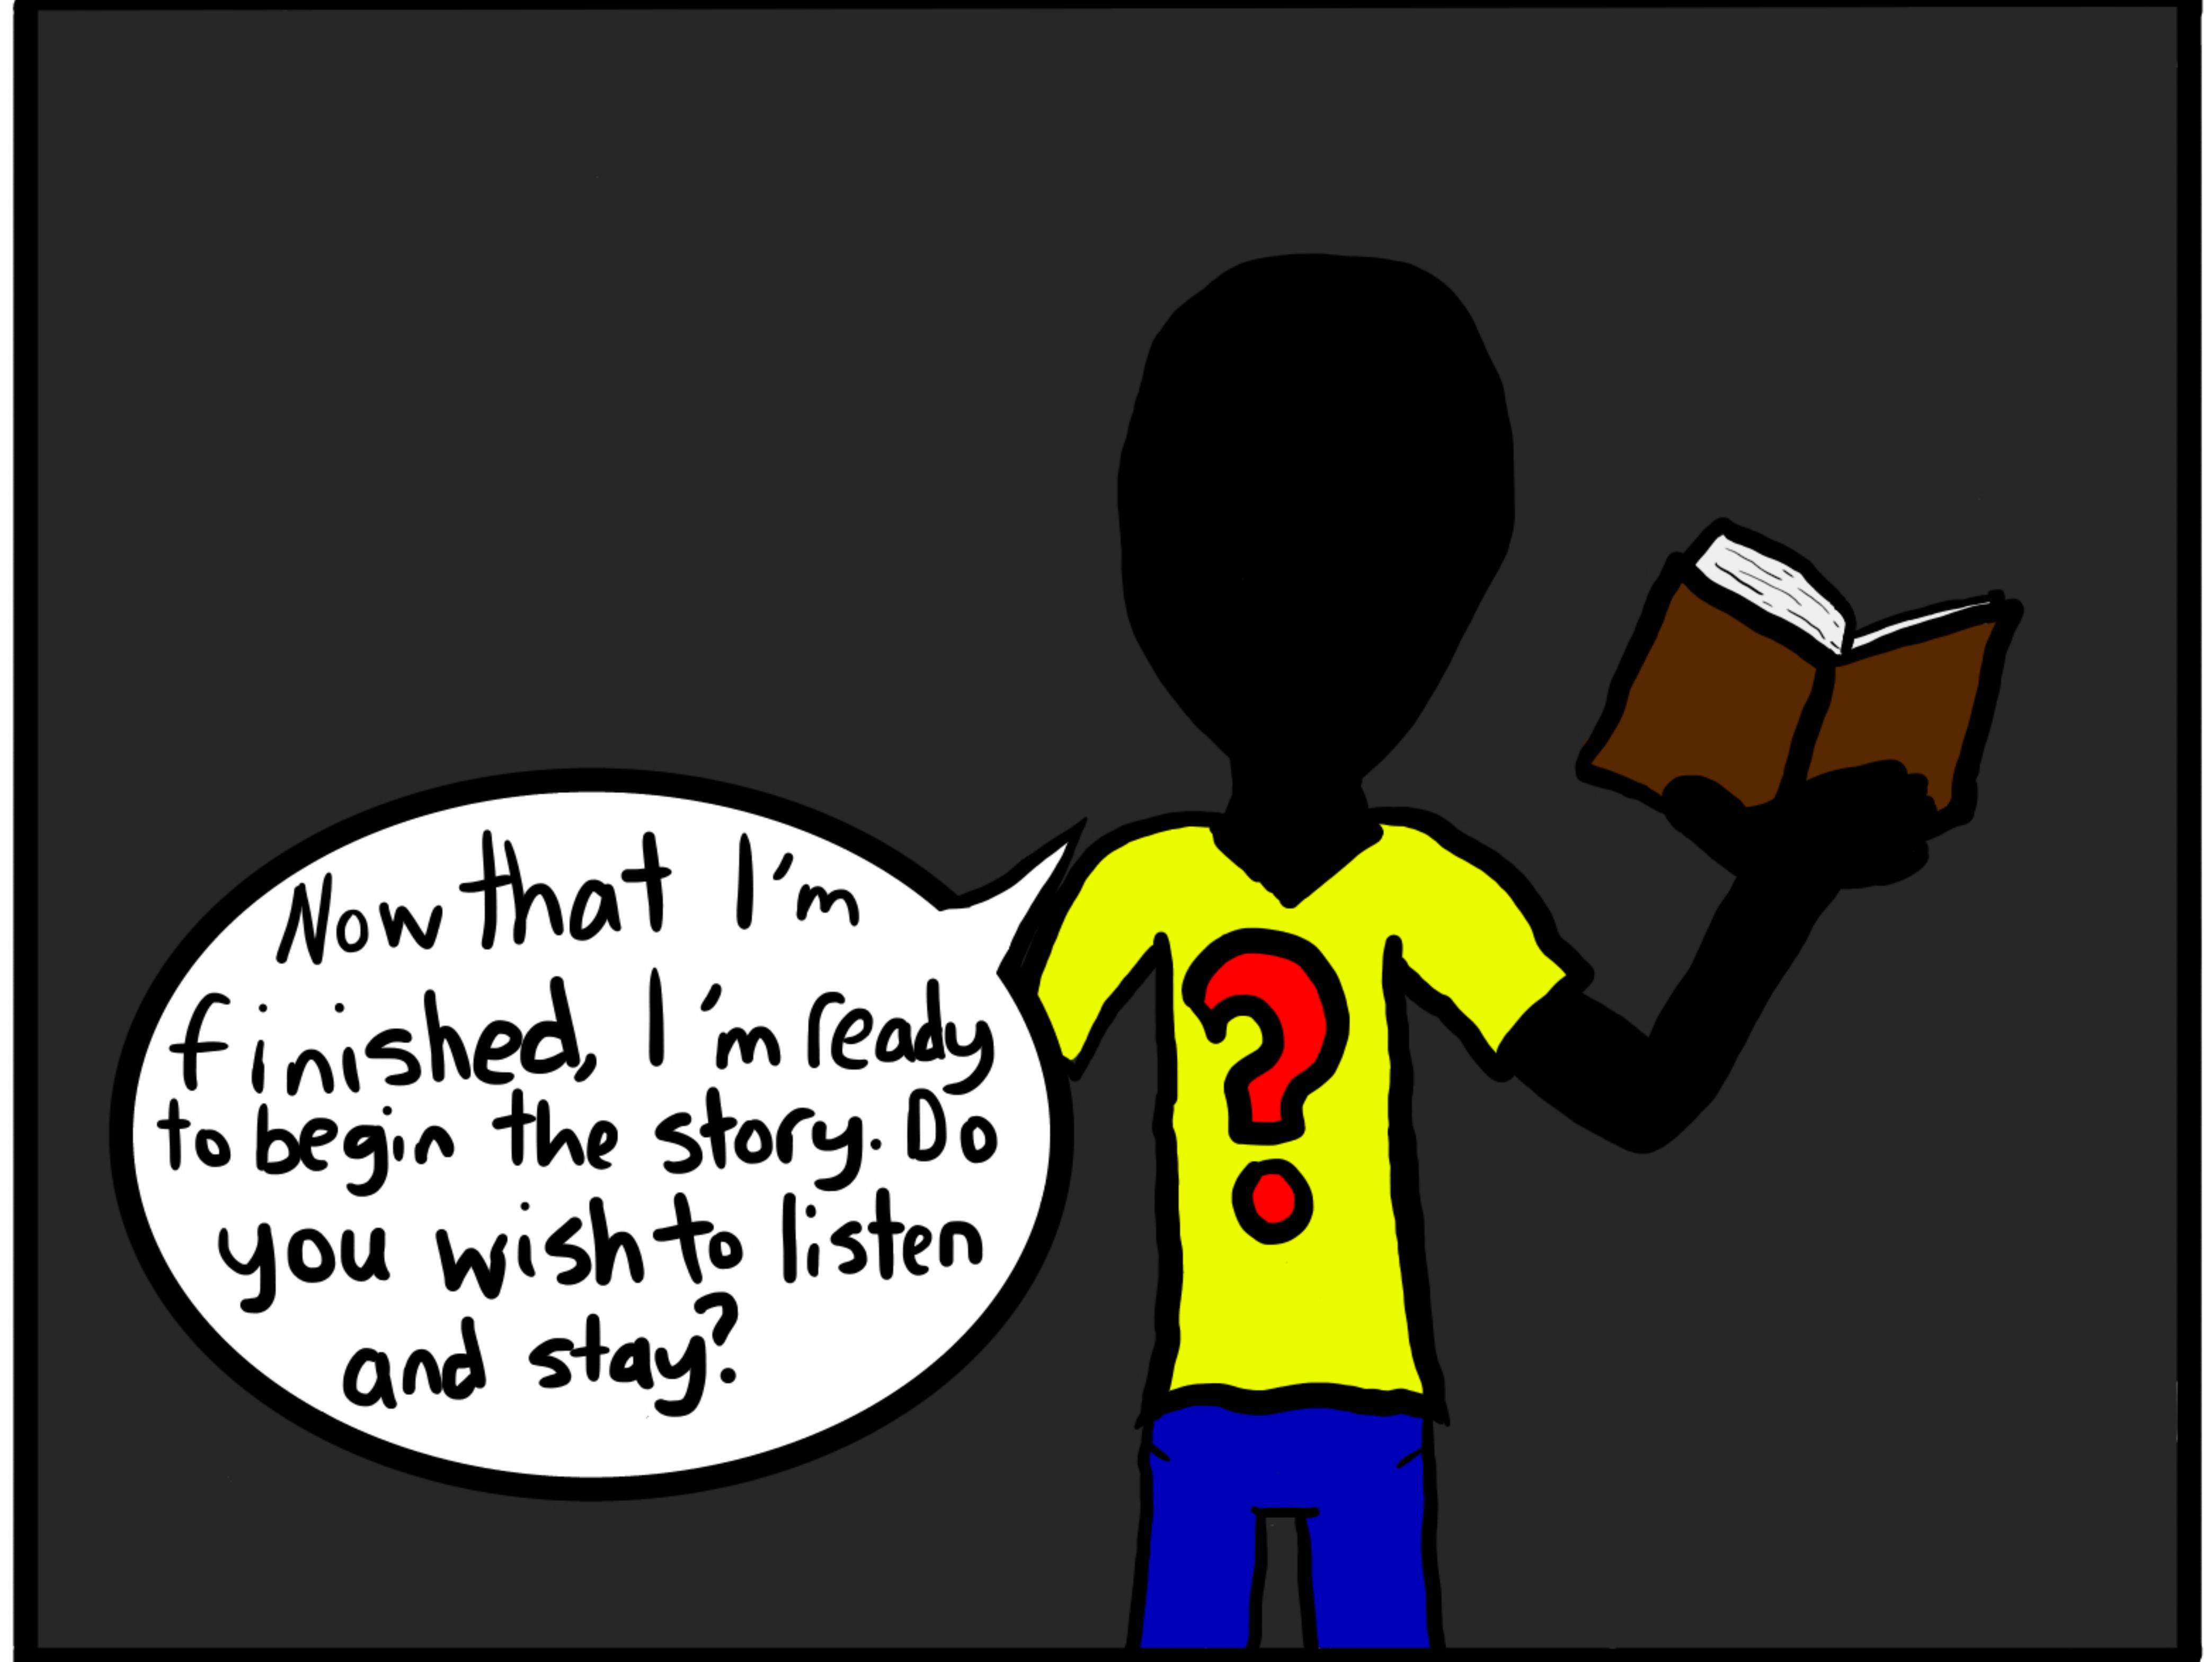

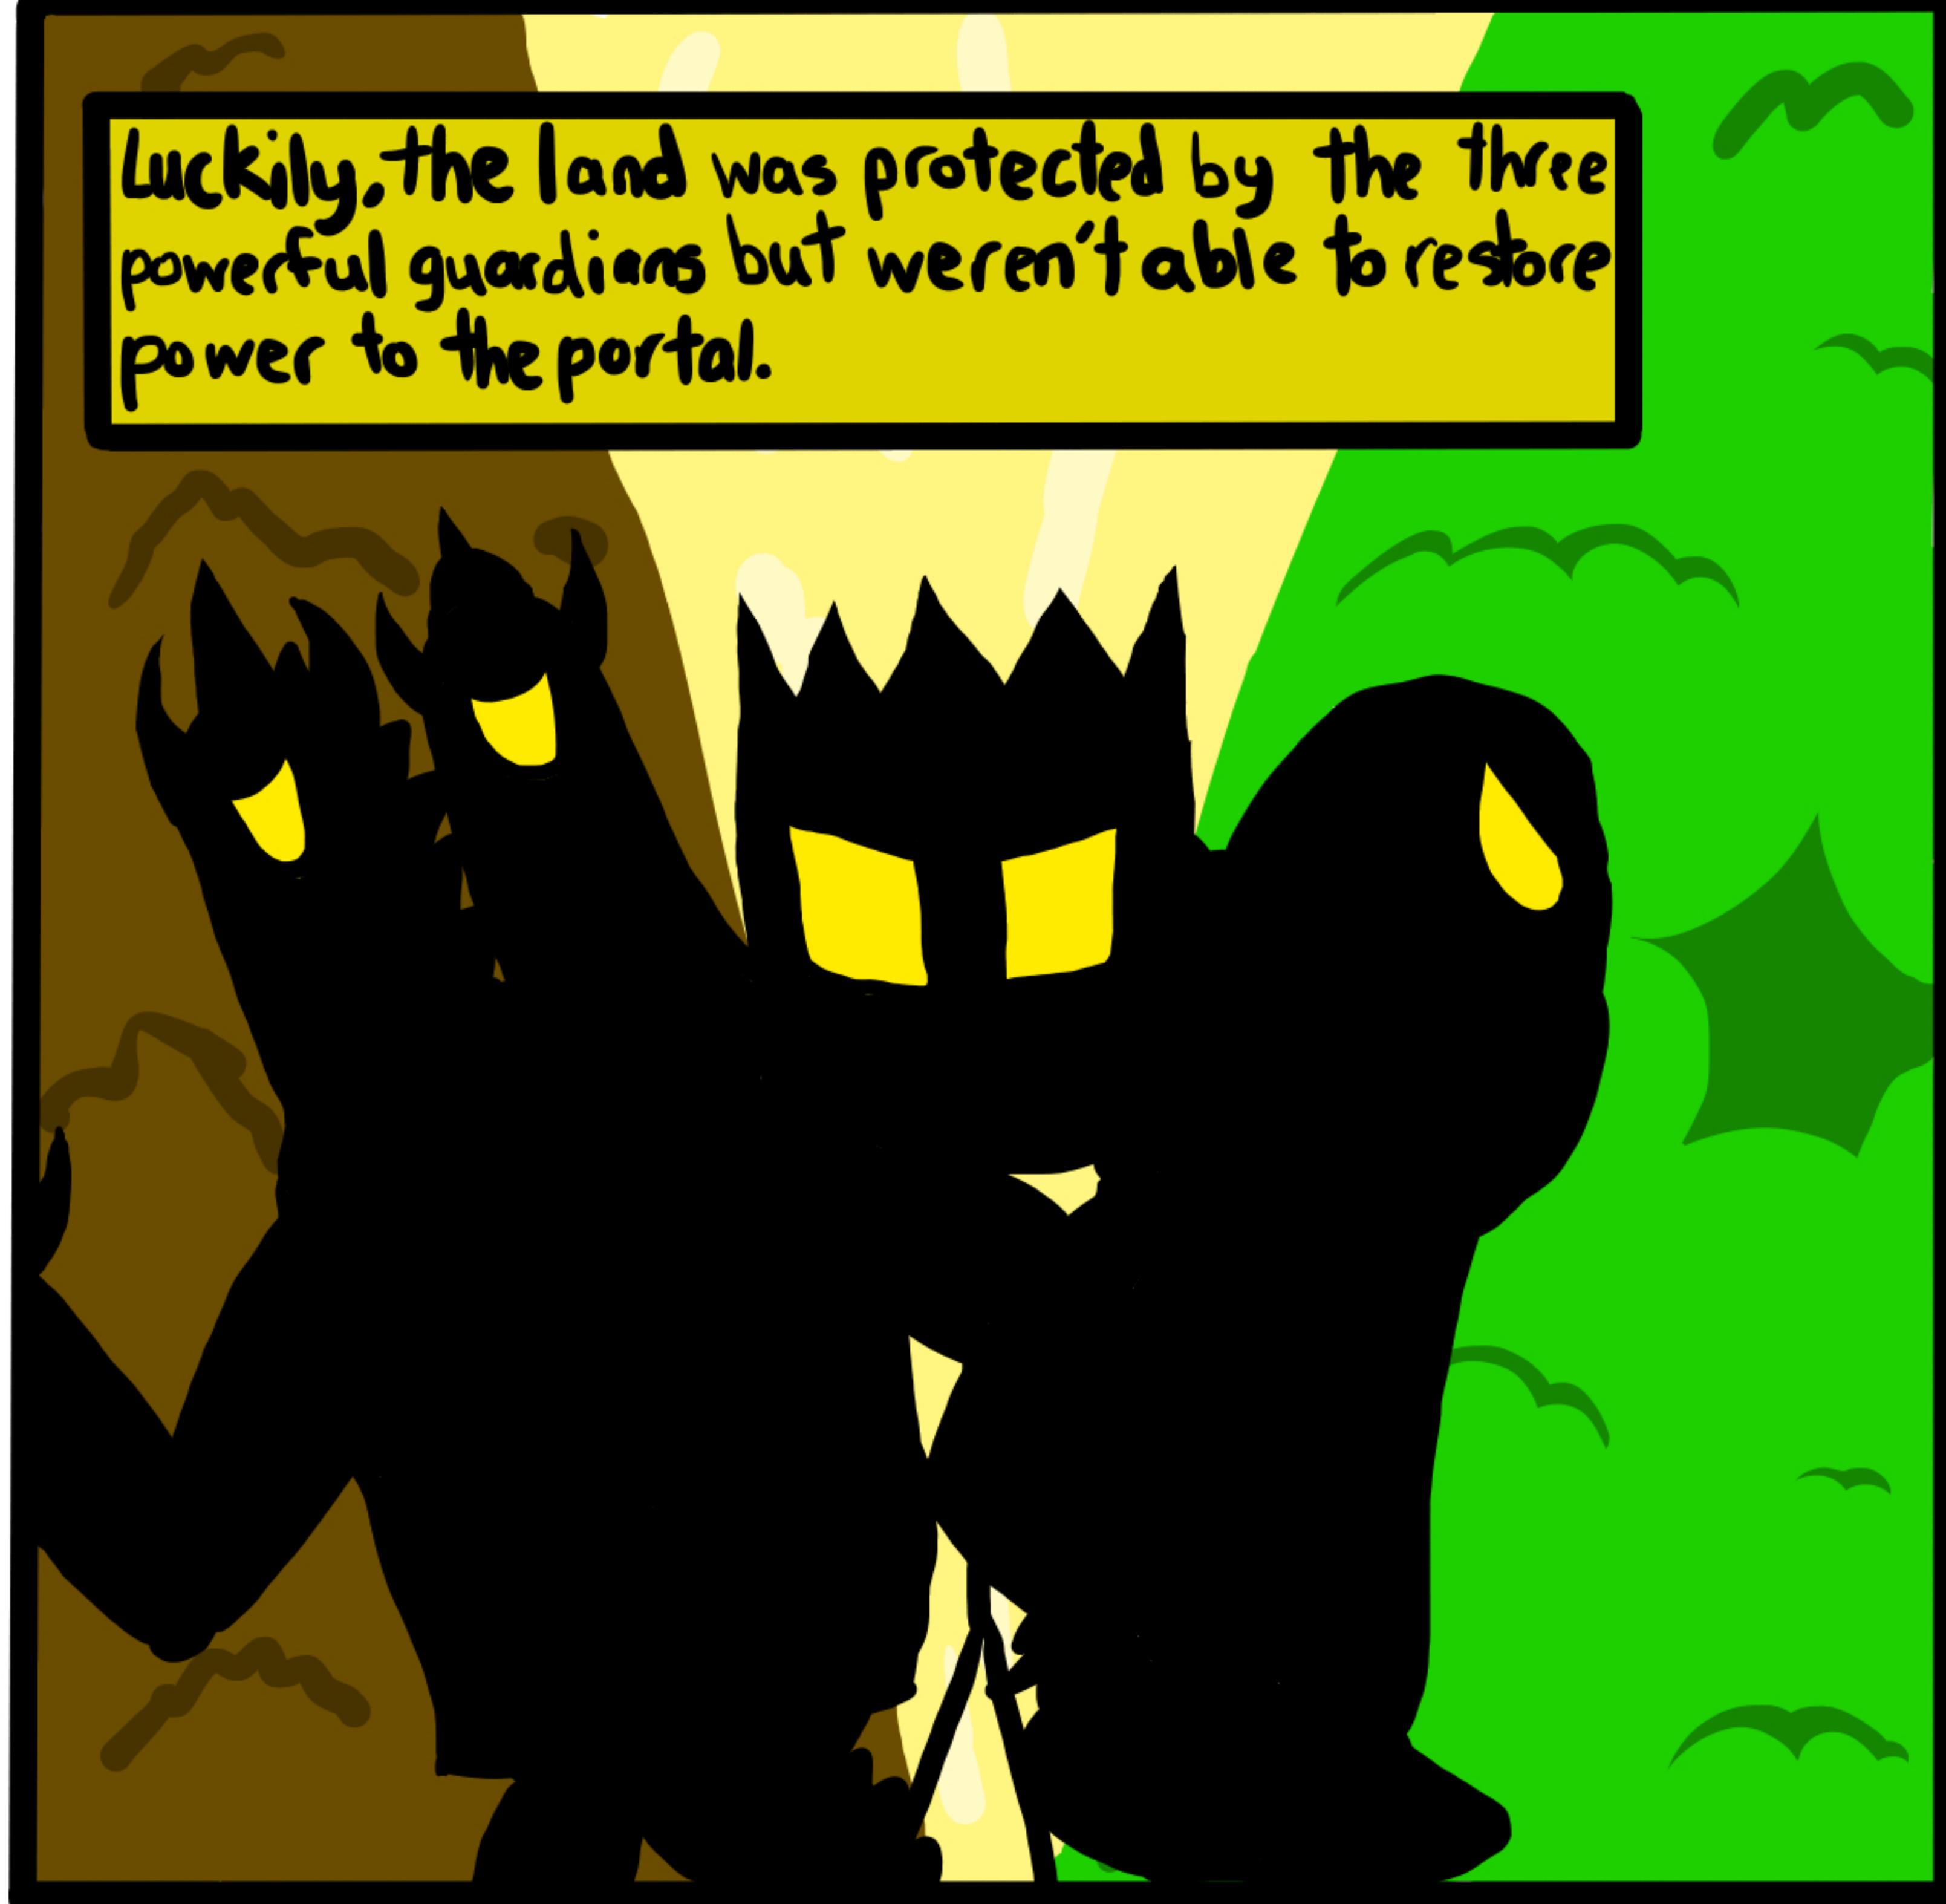

It begins with a legendary
and mystical tree....

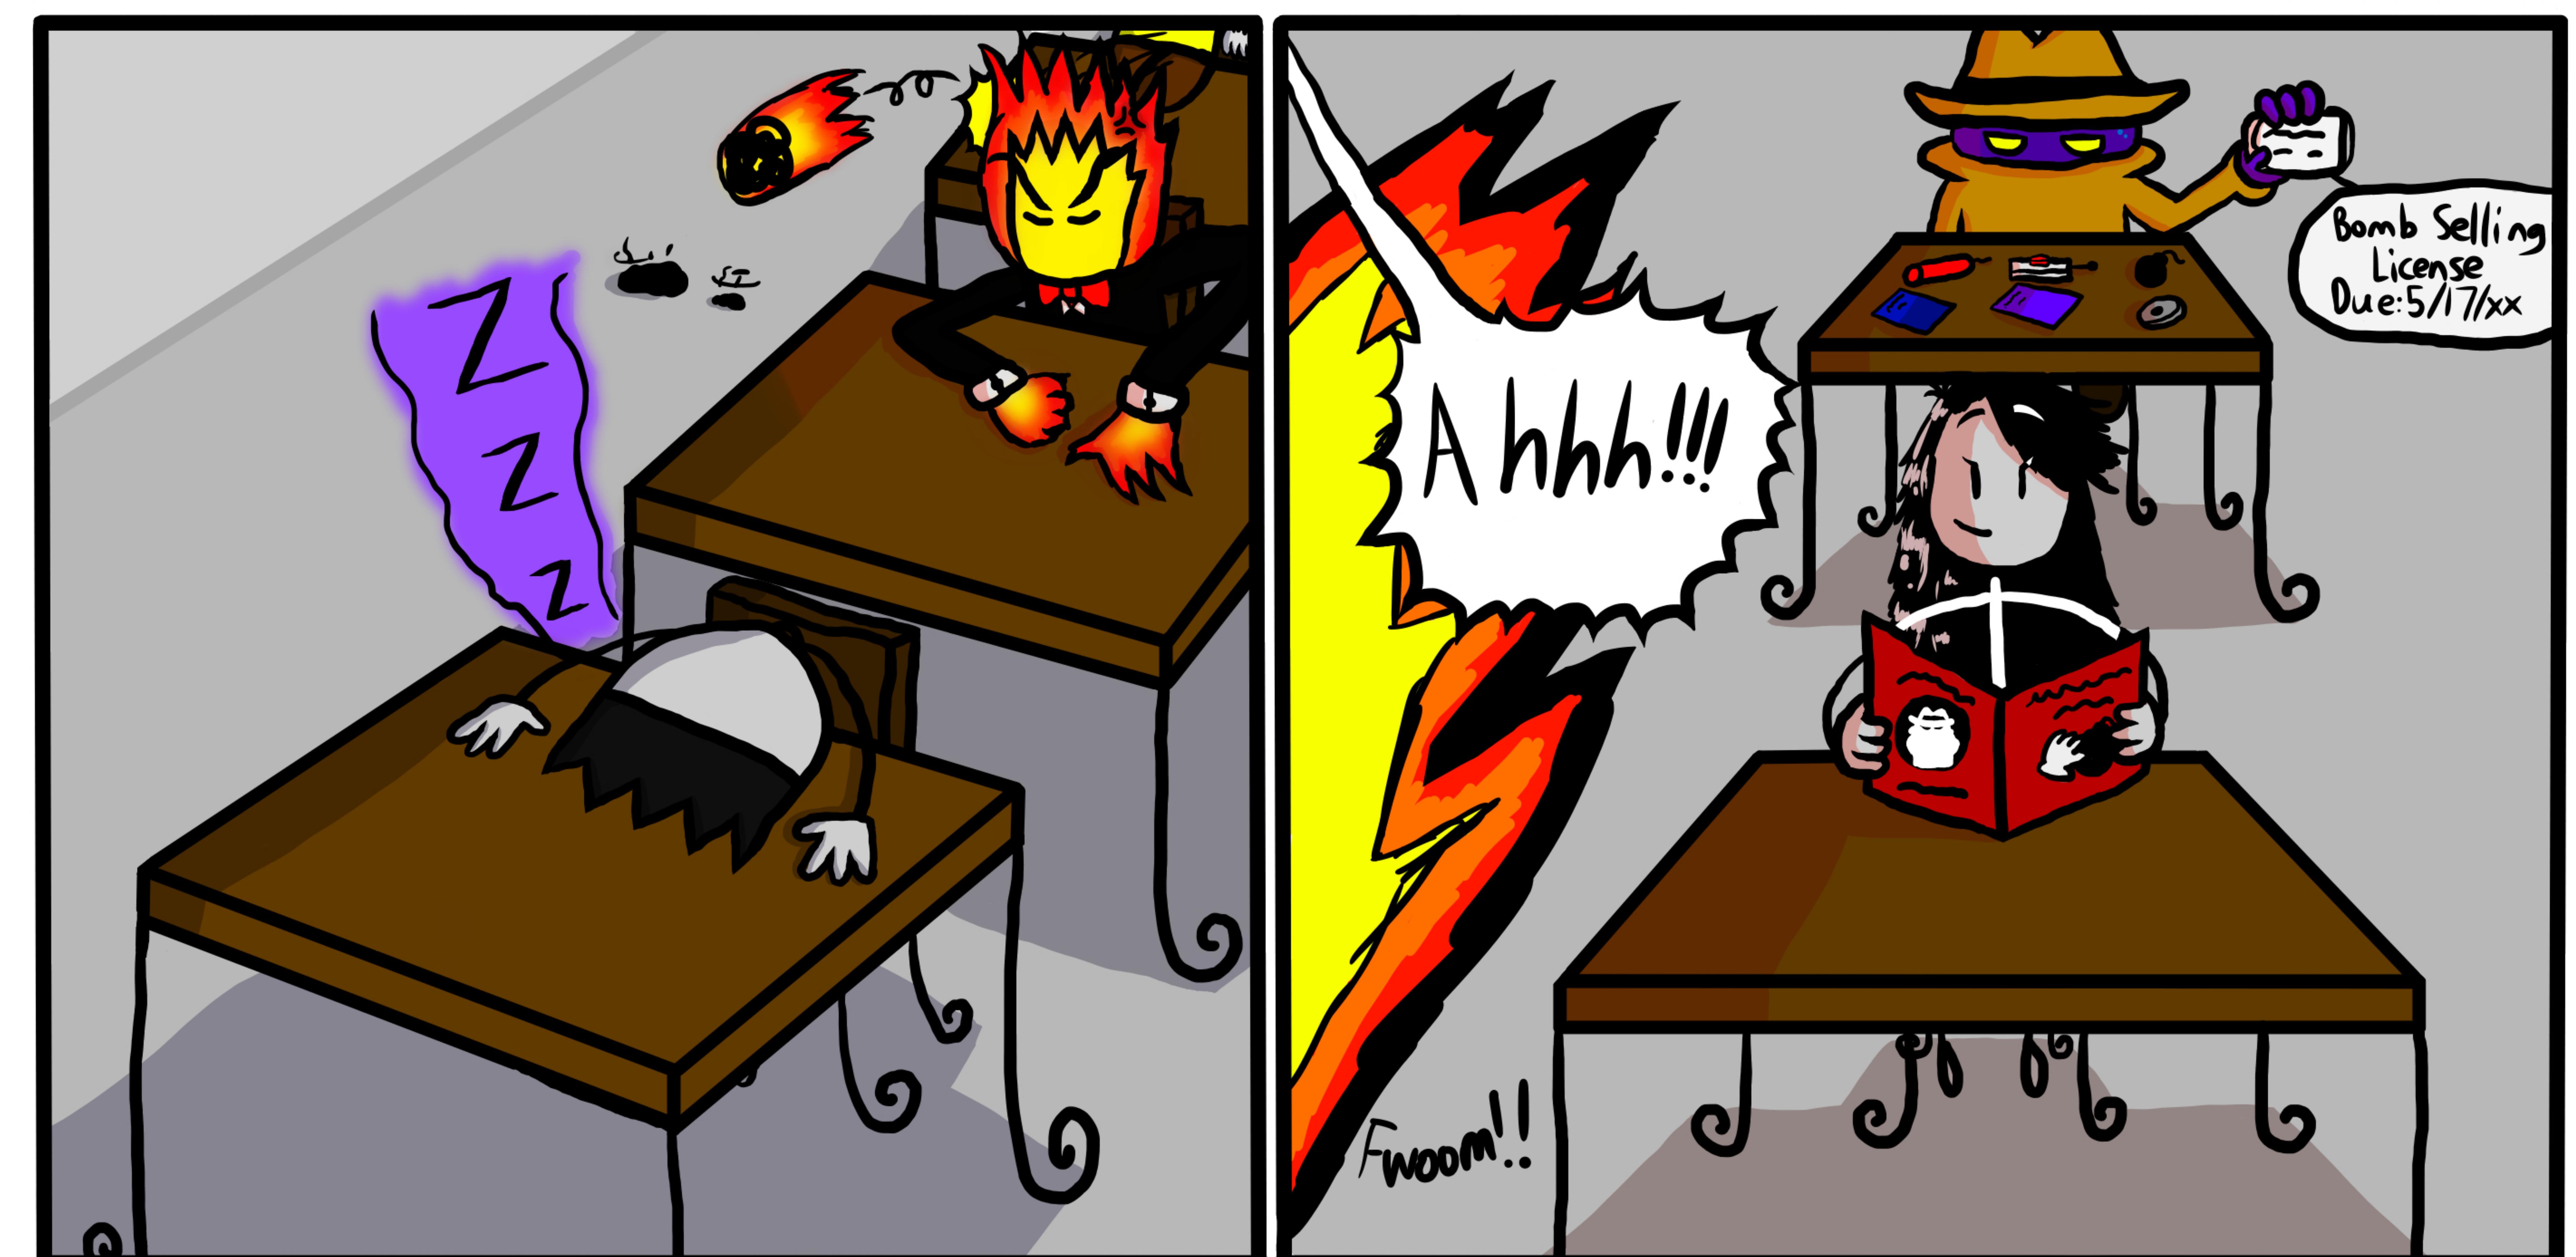

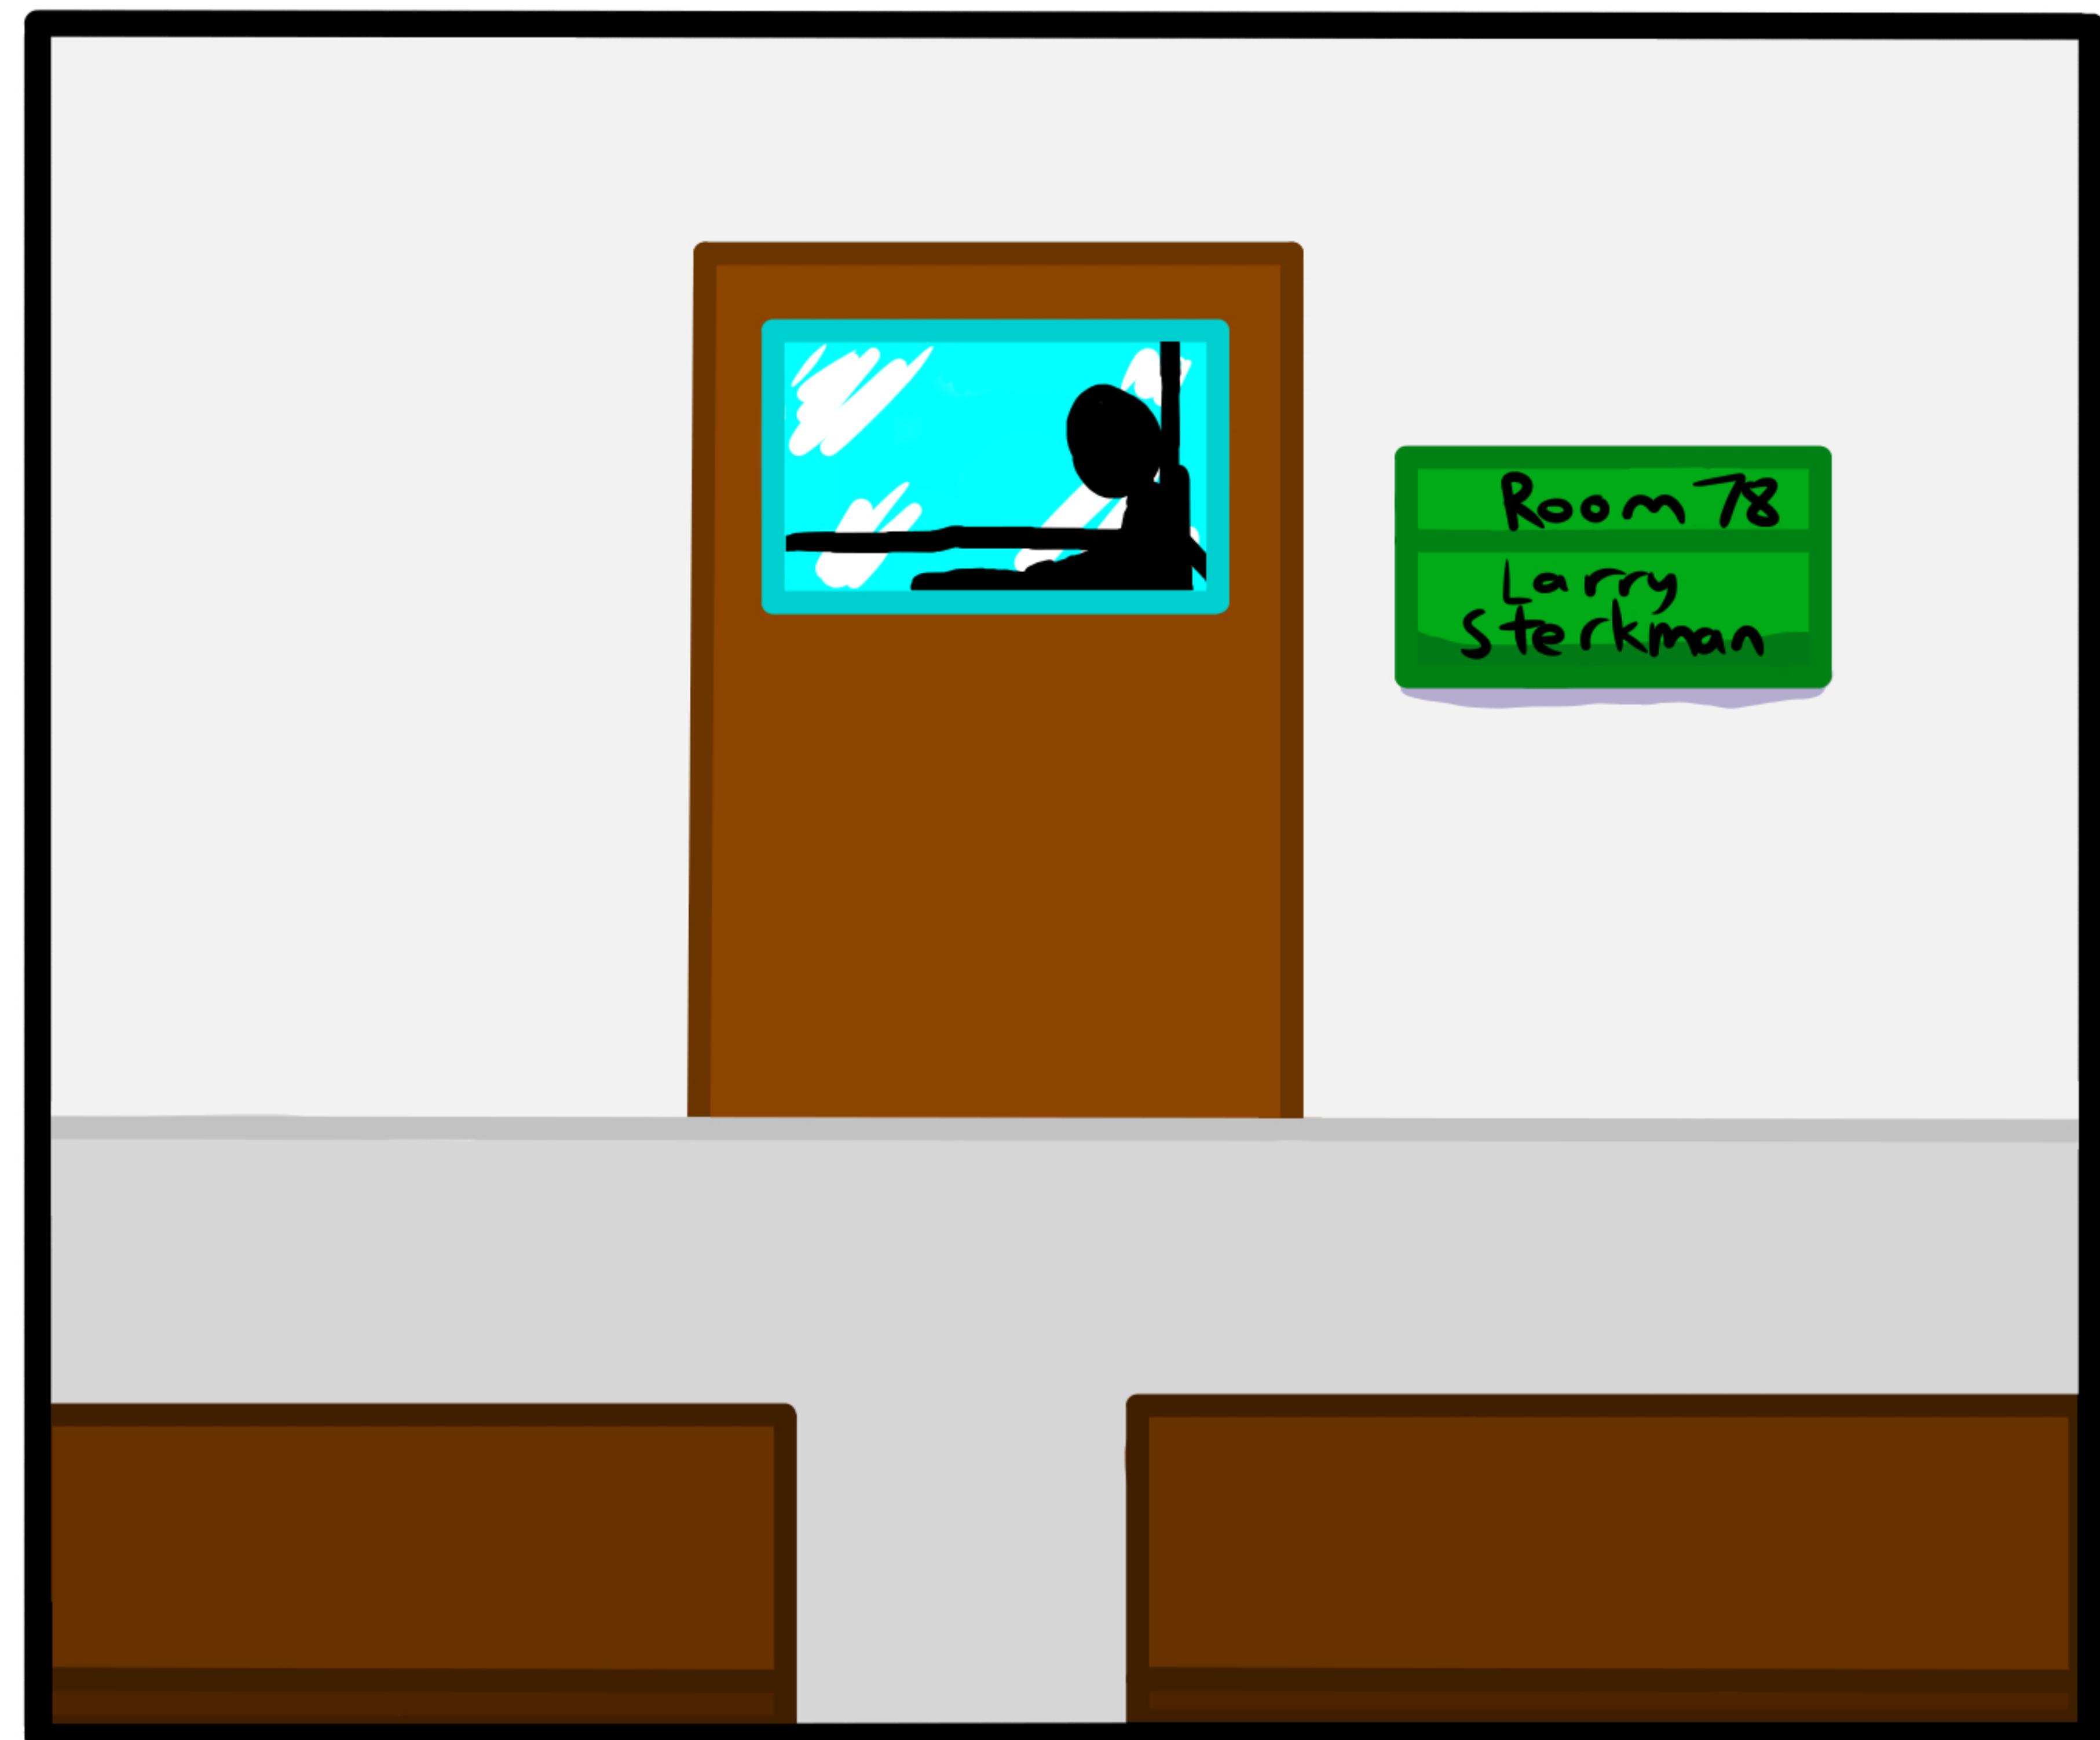

Inside the tree inhabits
the portal that leads to the Paper Dimension.

Unfortunately, a mysterious key
is needed to activate the portal.

Rumors of monsters
running rampage in
this world may explain
the closure of the portal.

Luckily, the land was protected by the three powerful guardians but weren't able to restore power to the portal.

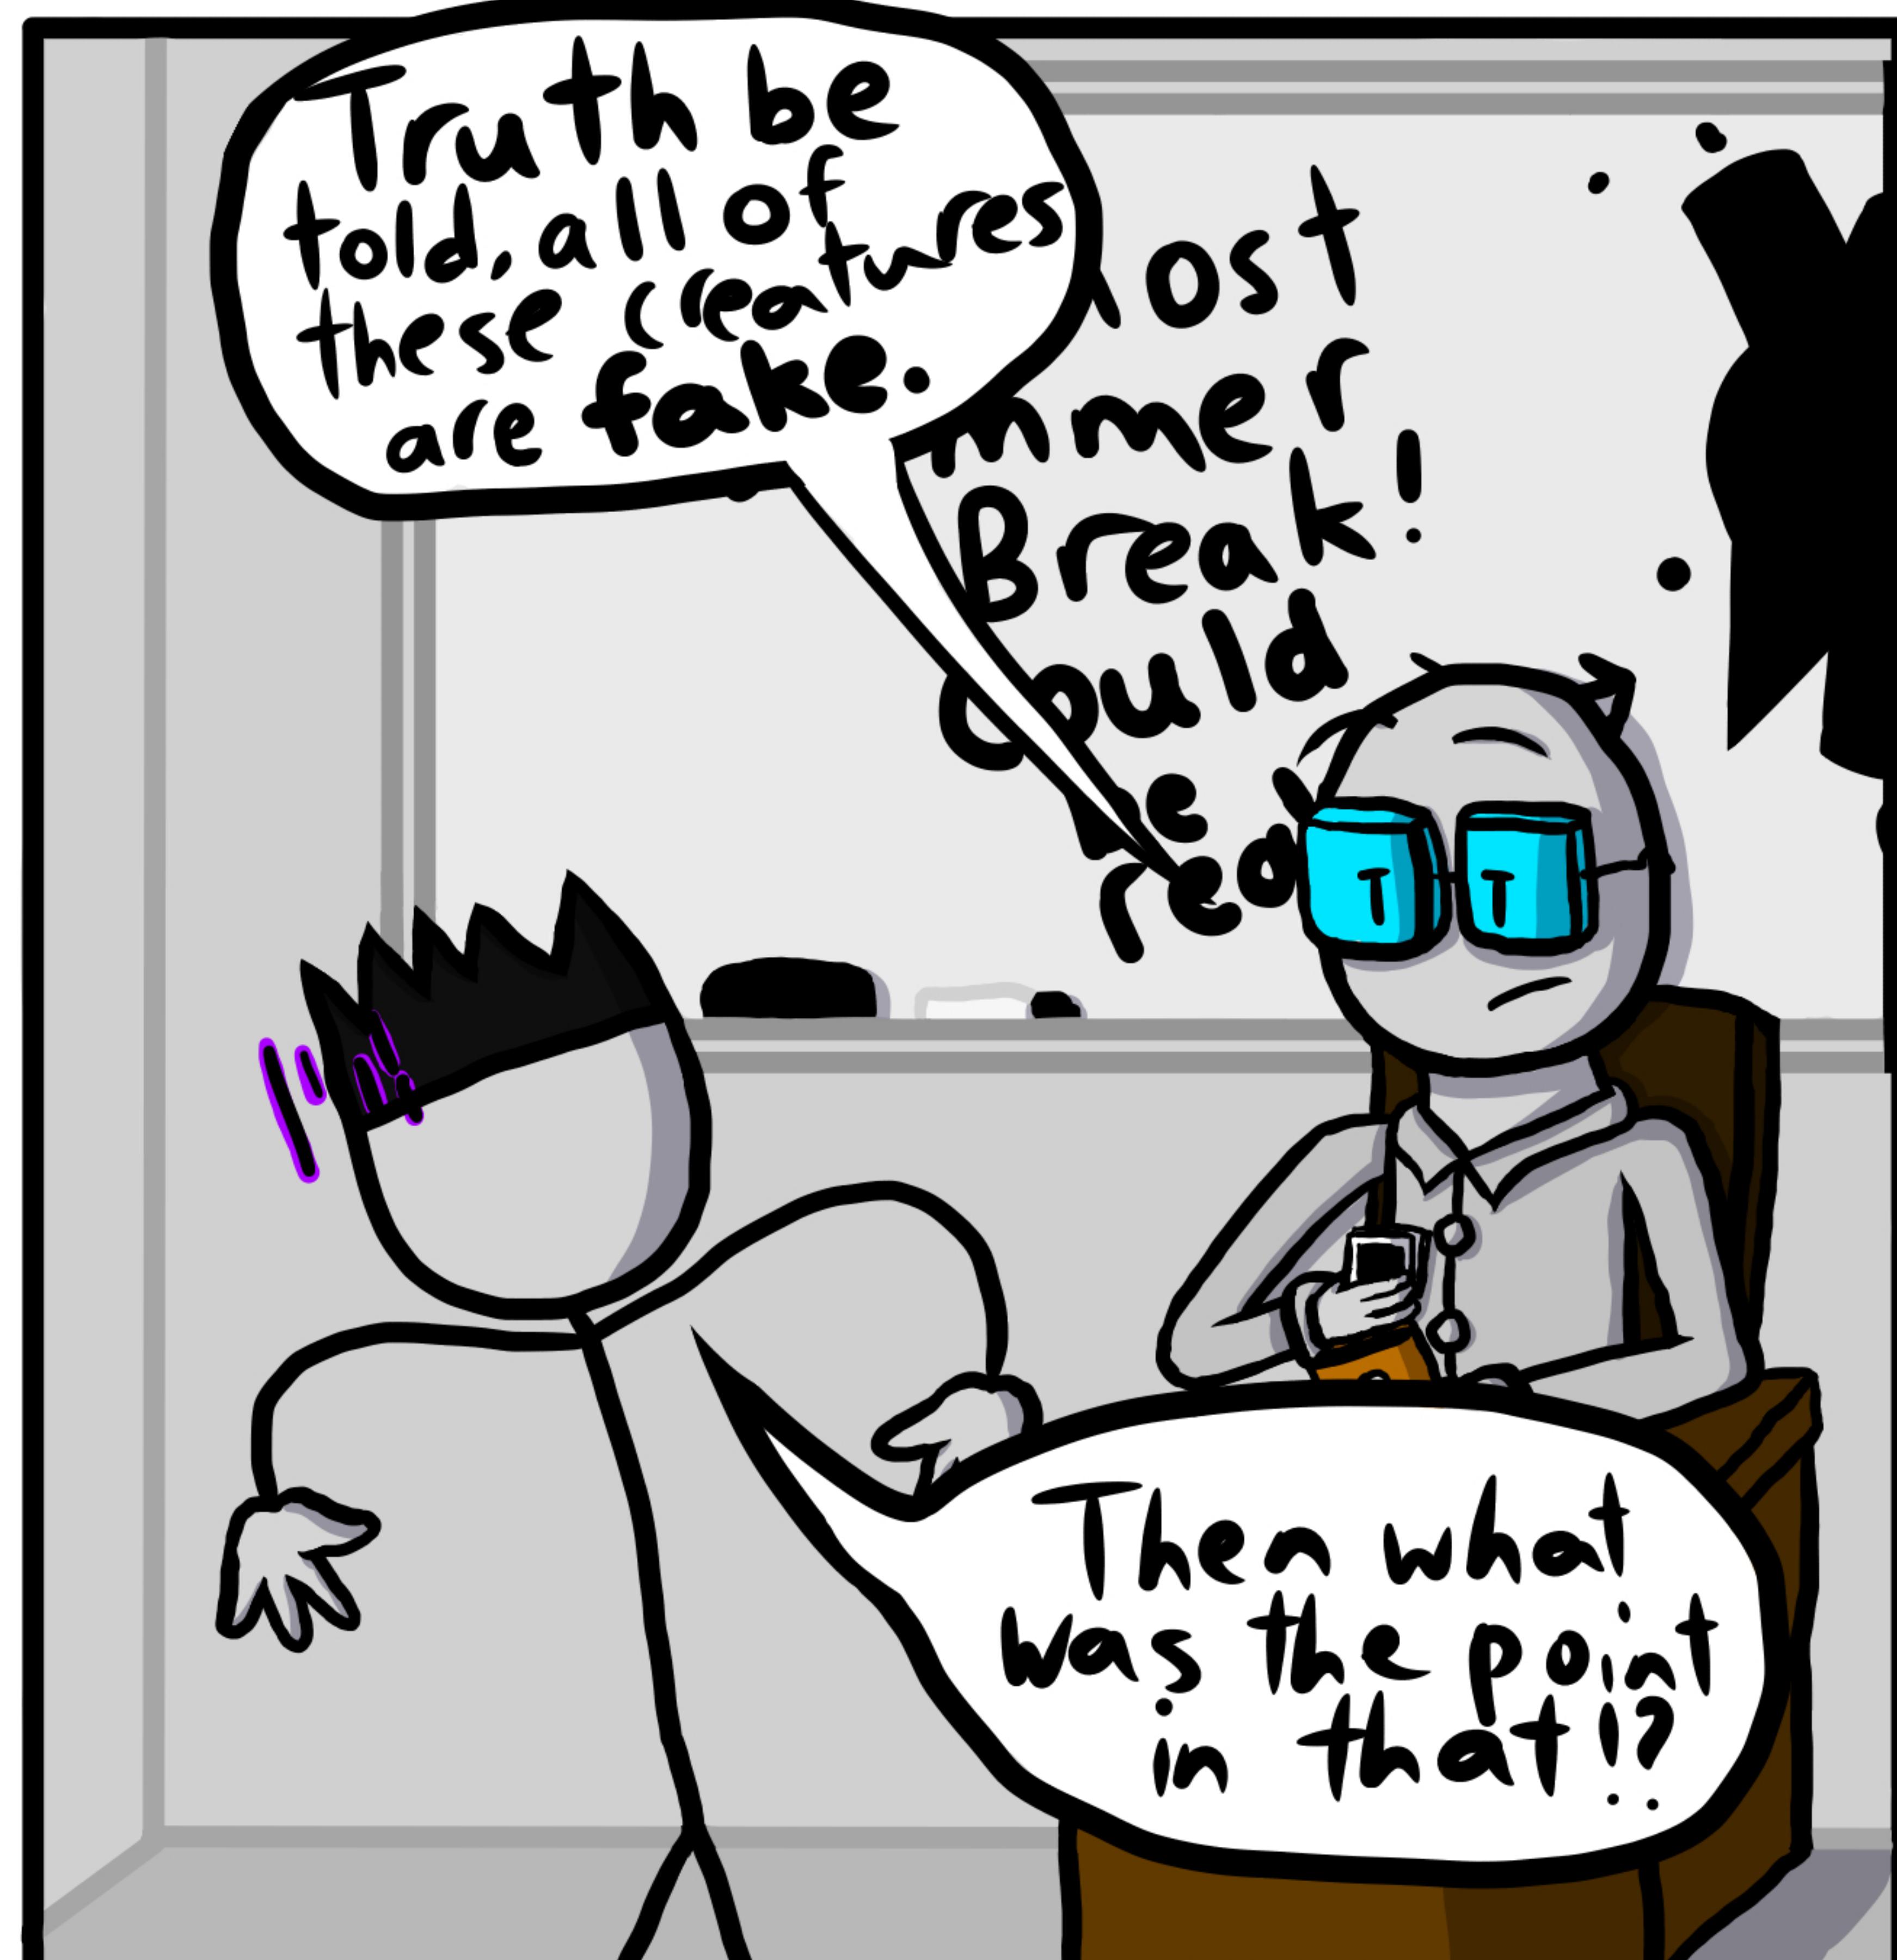

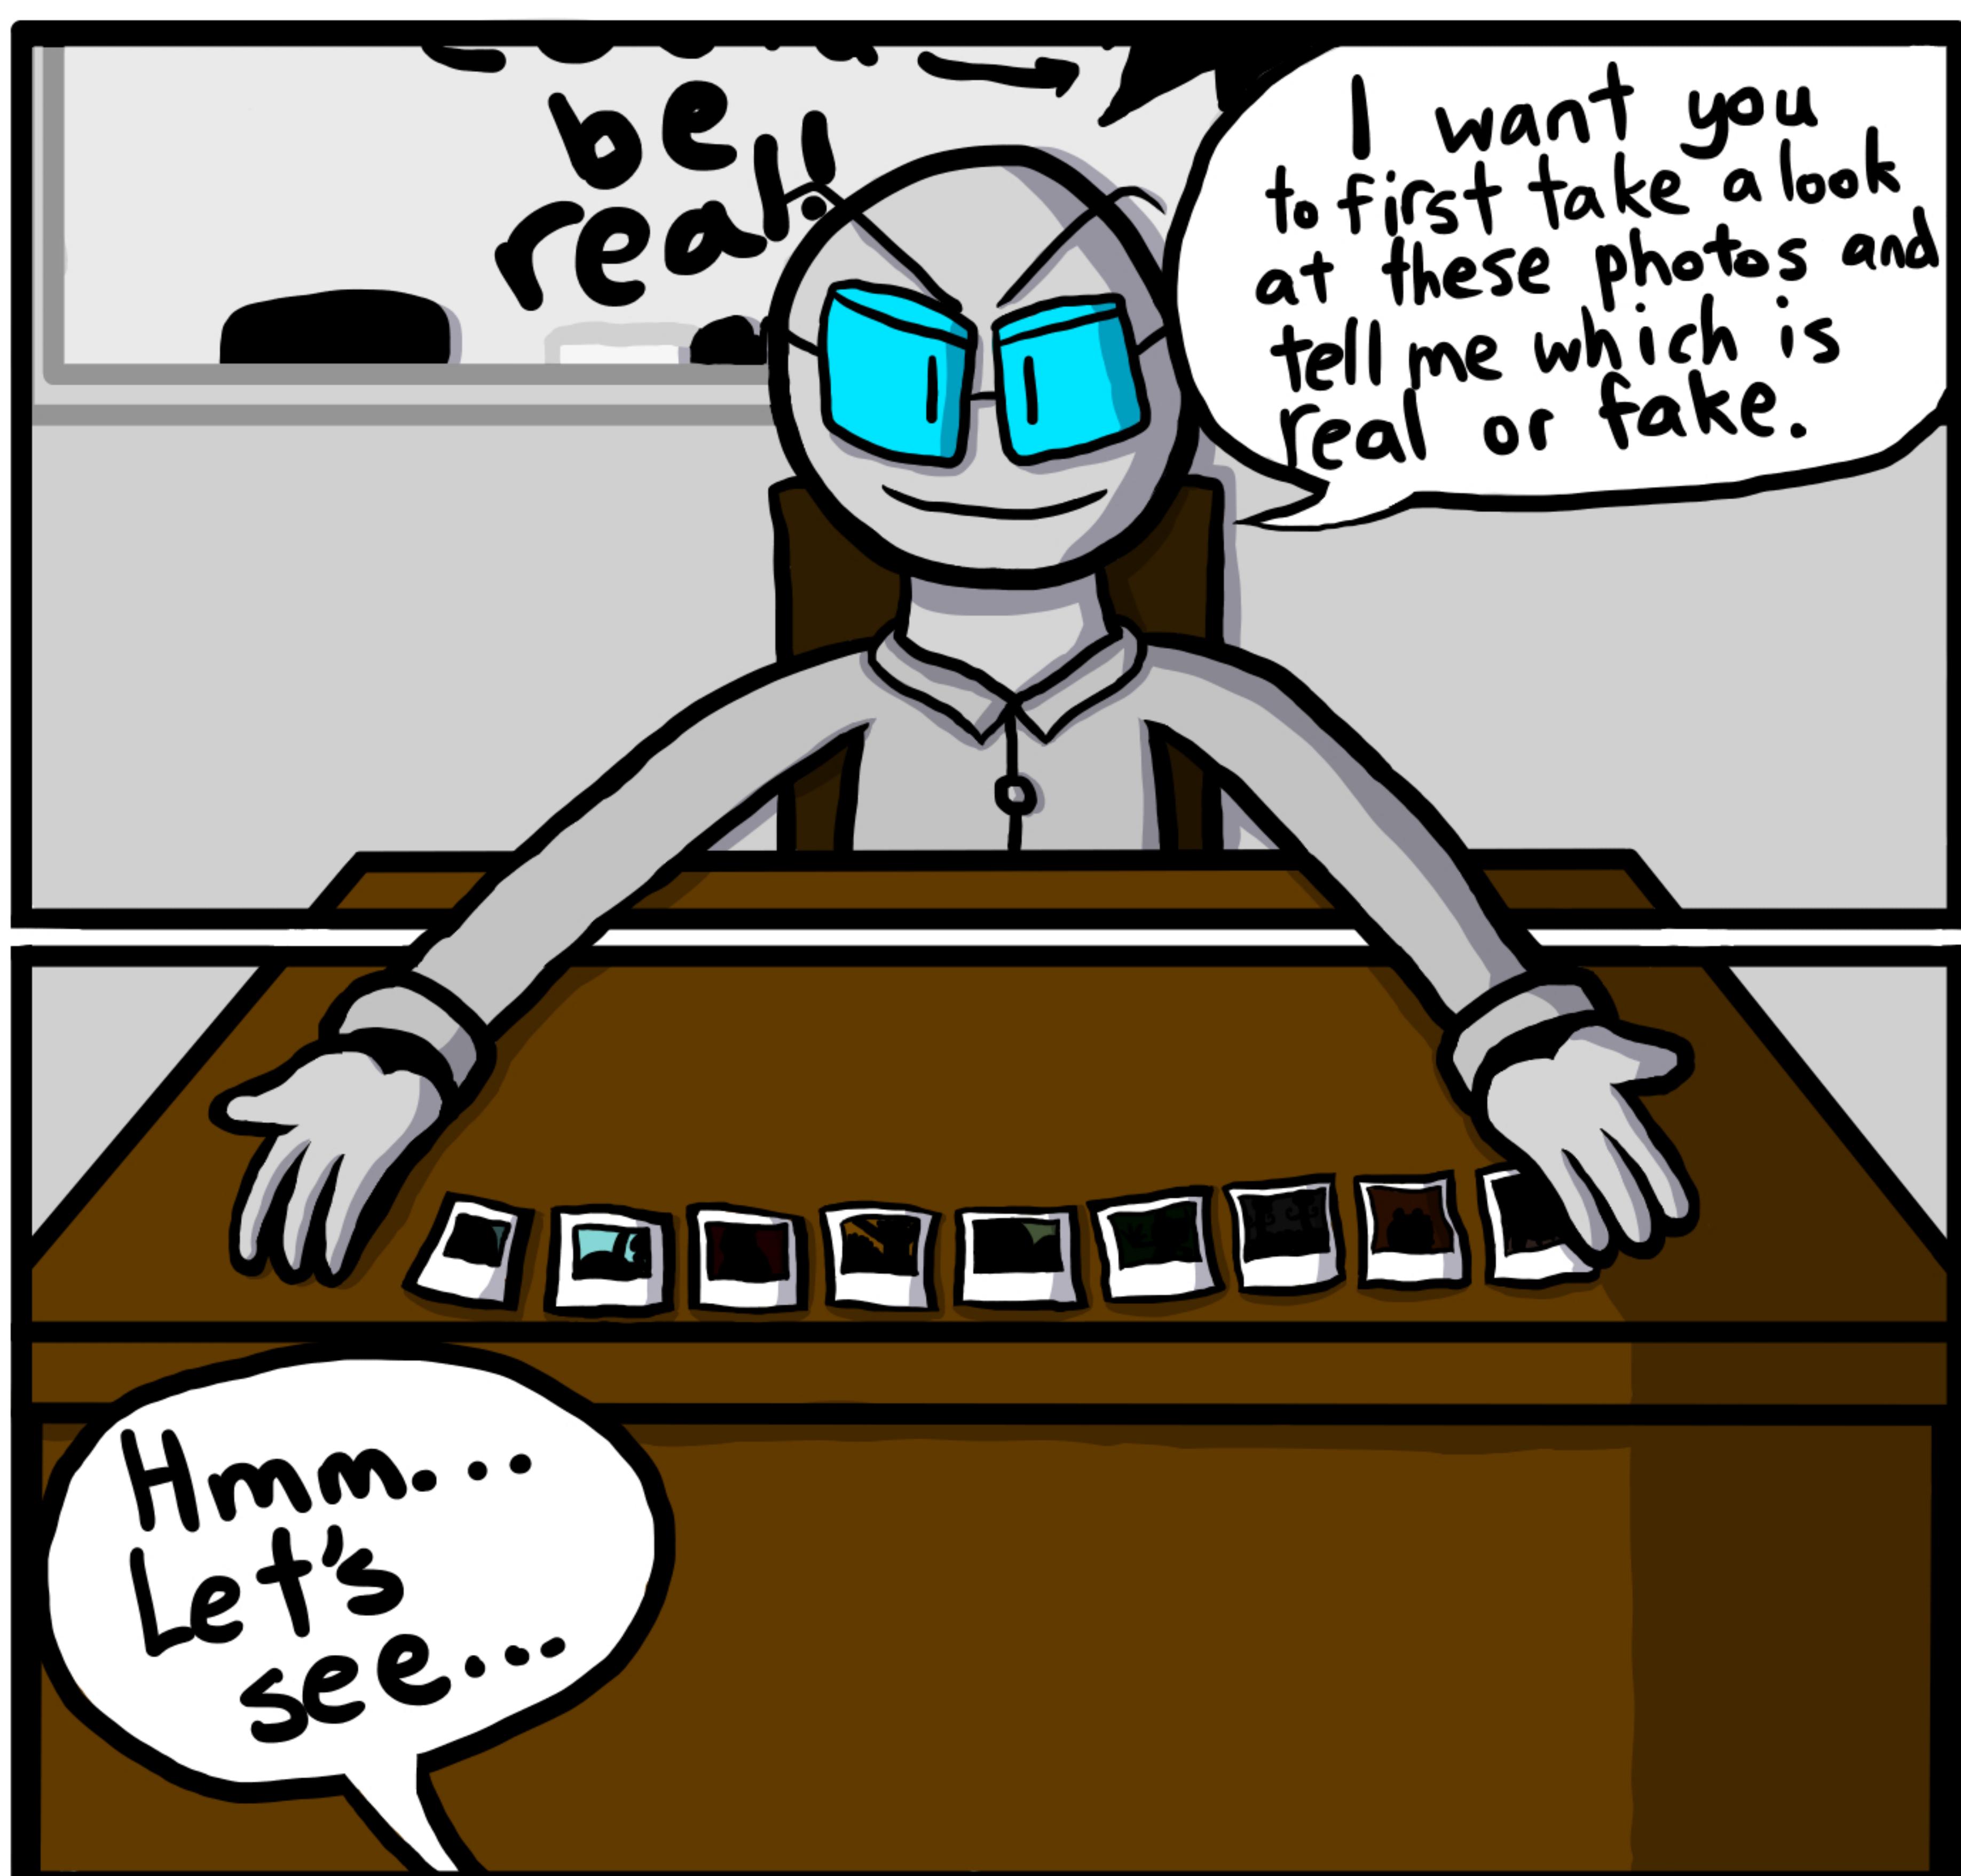

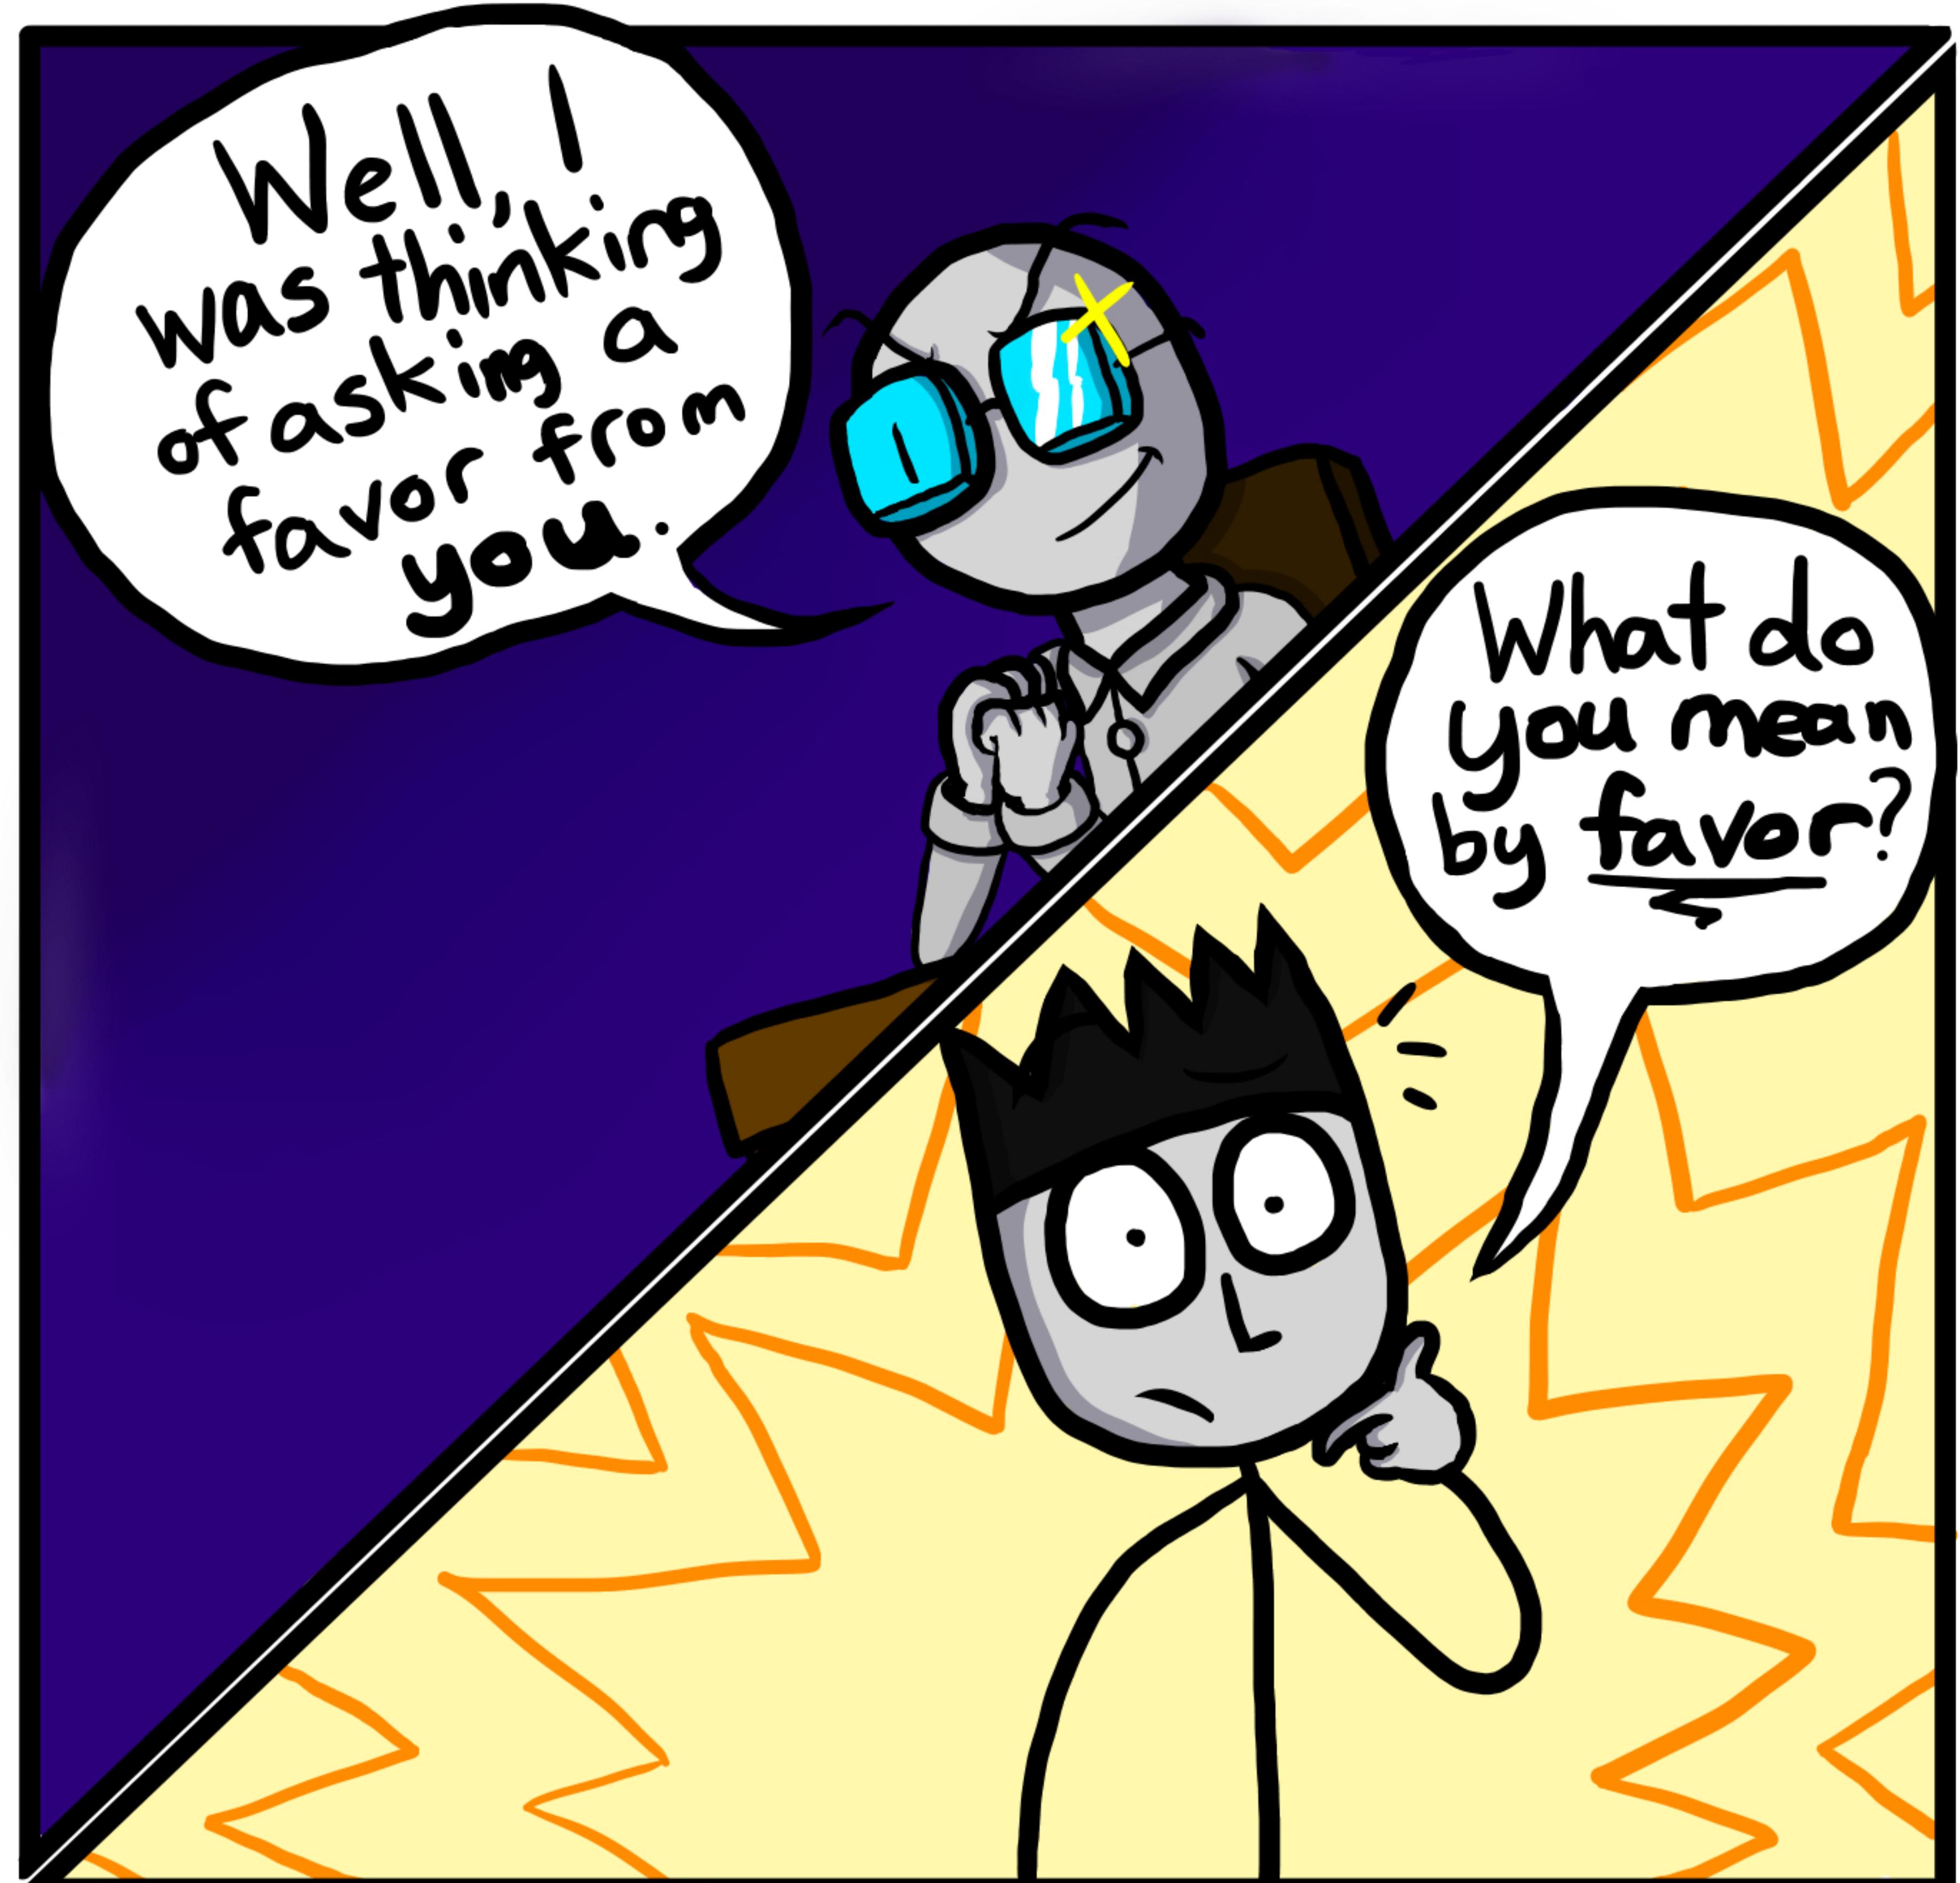

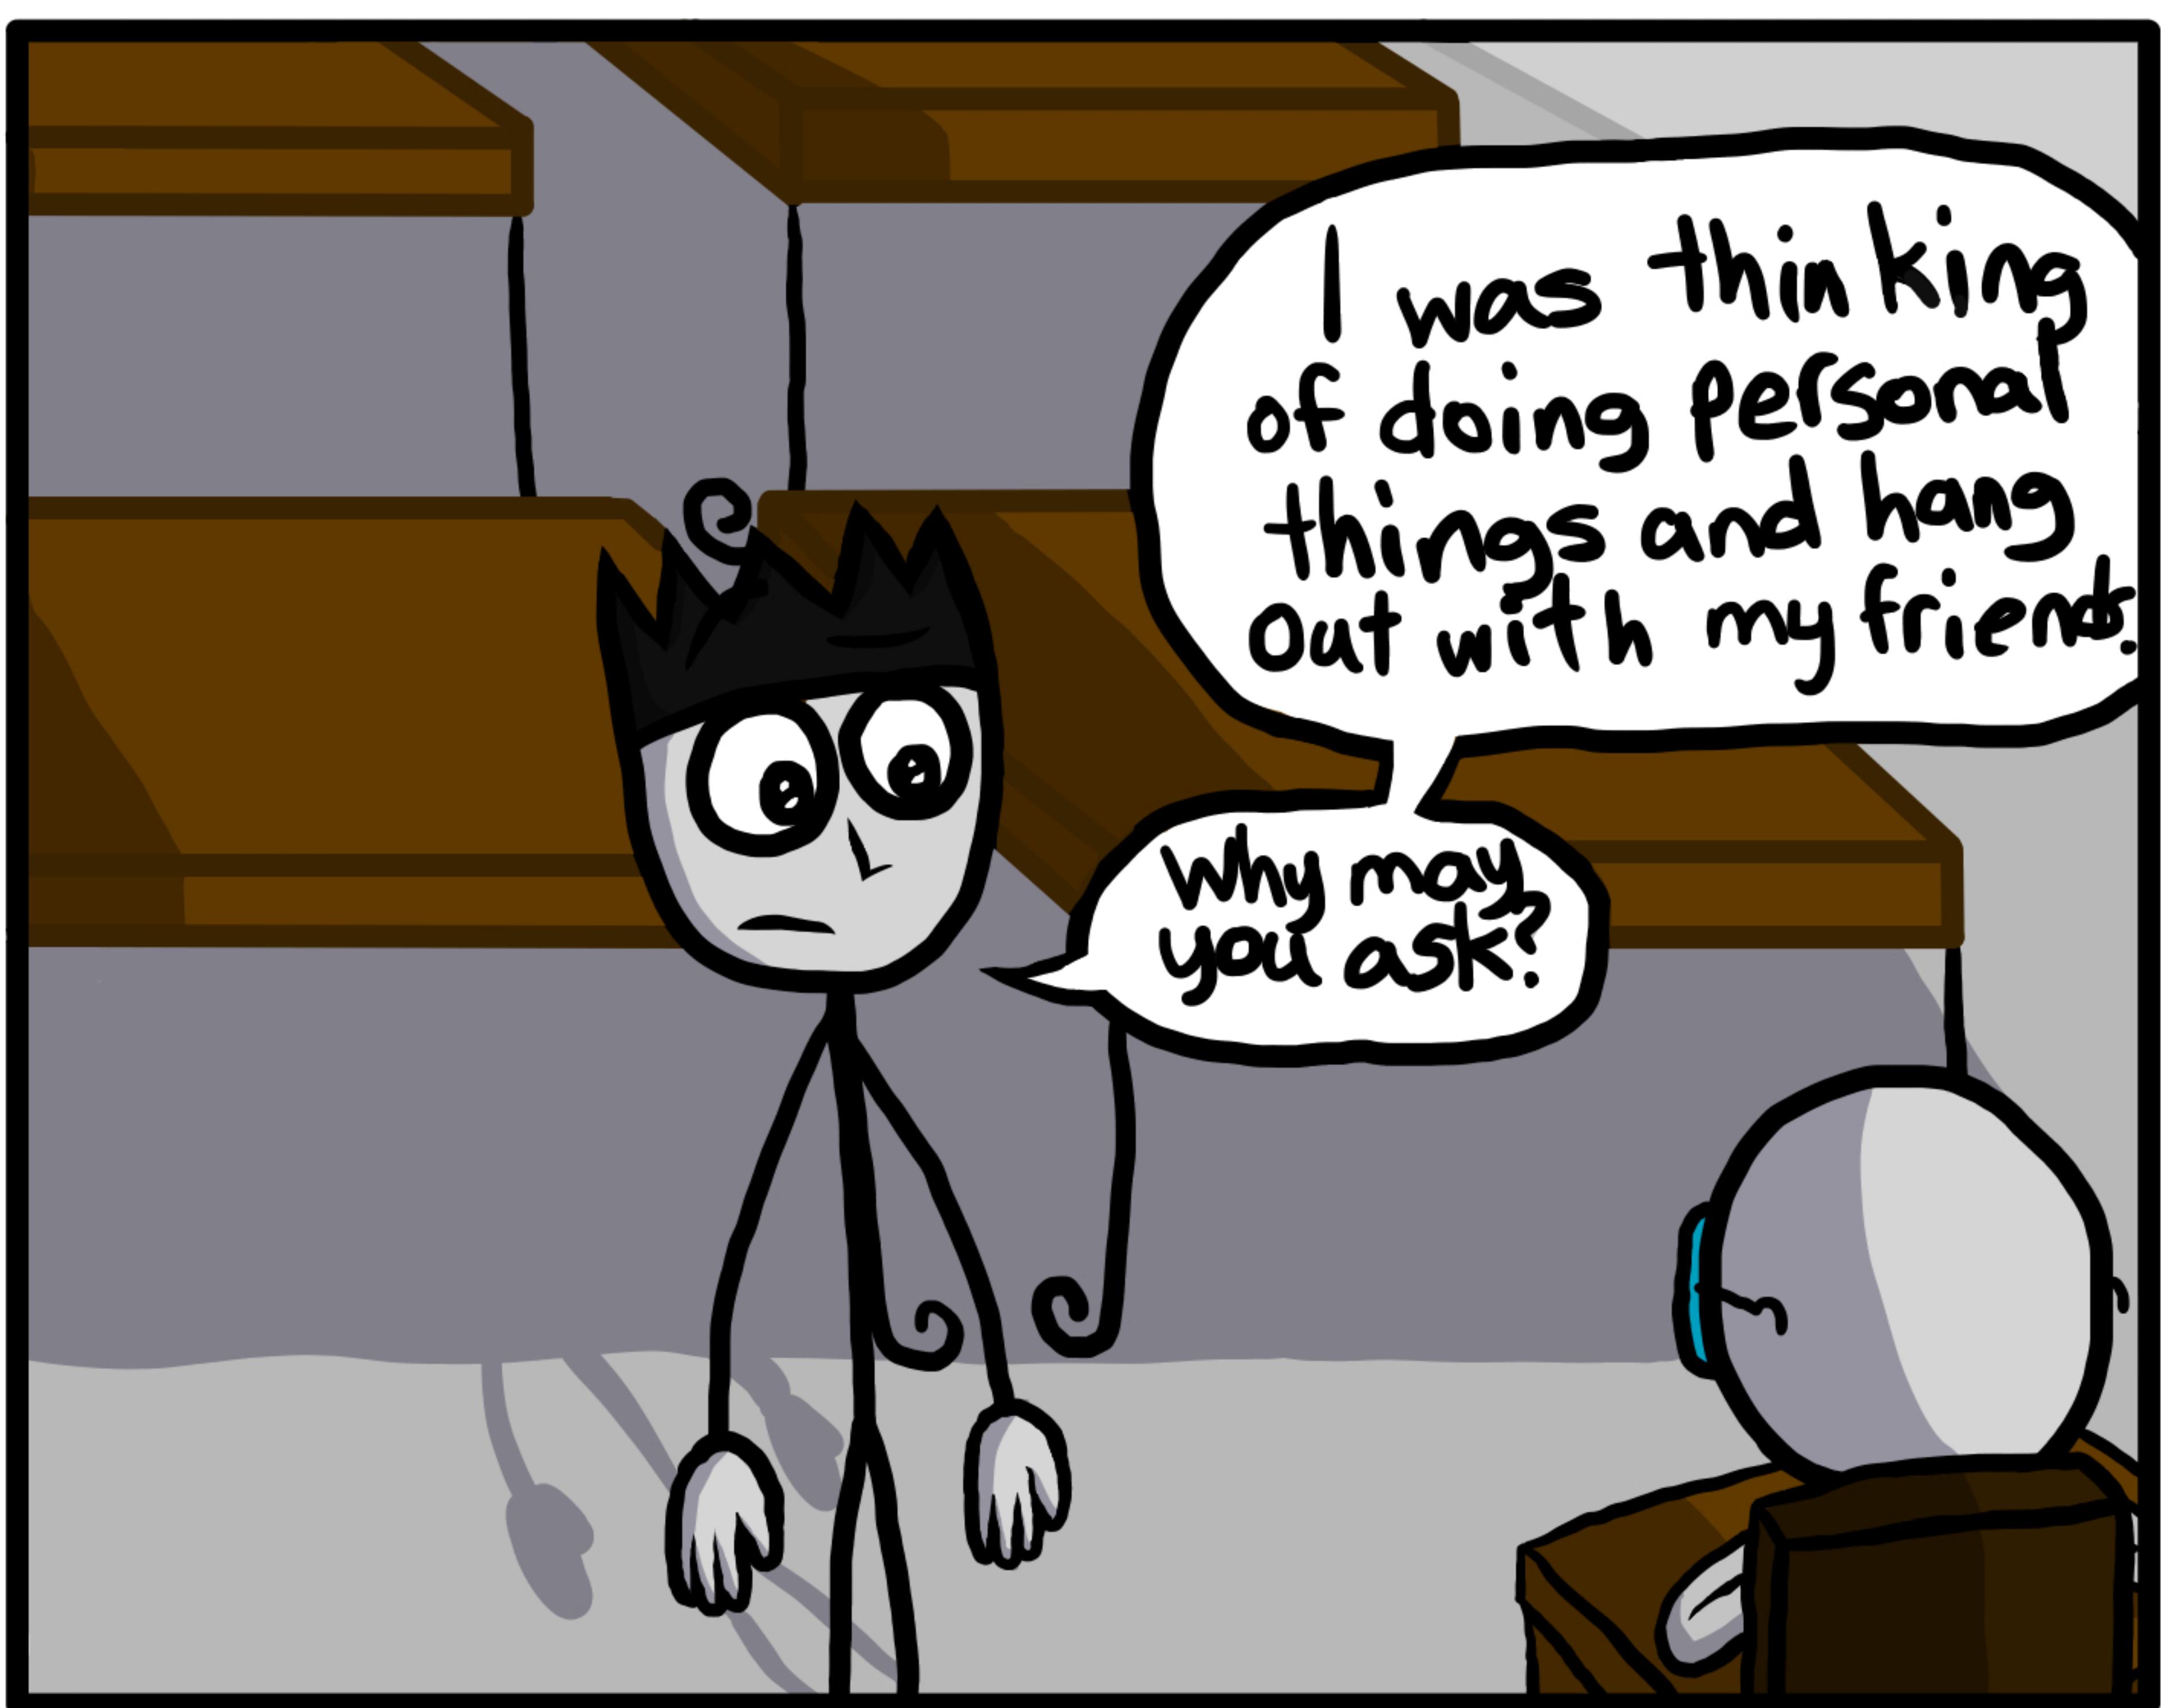

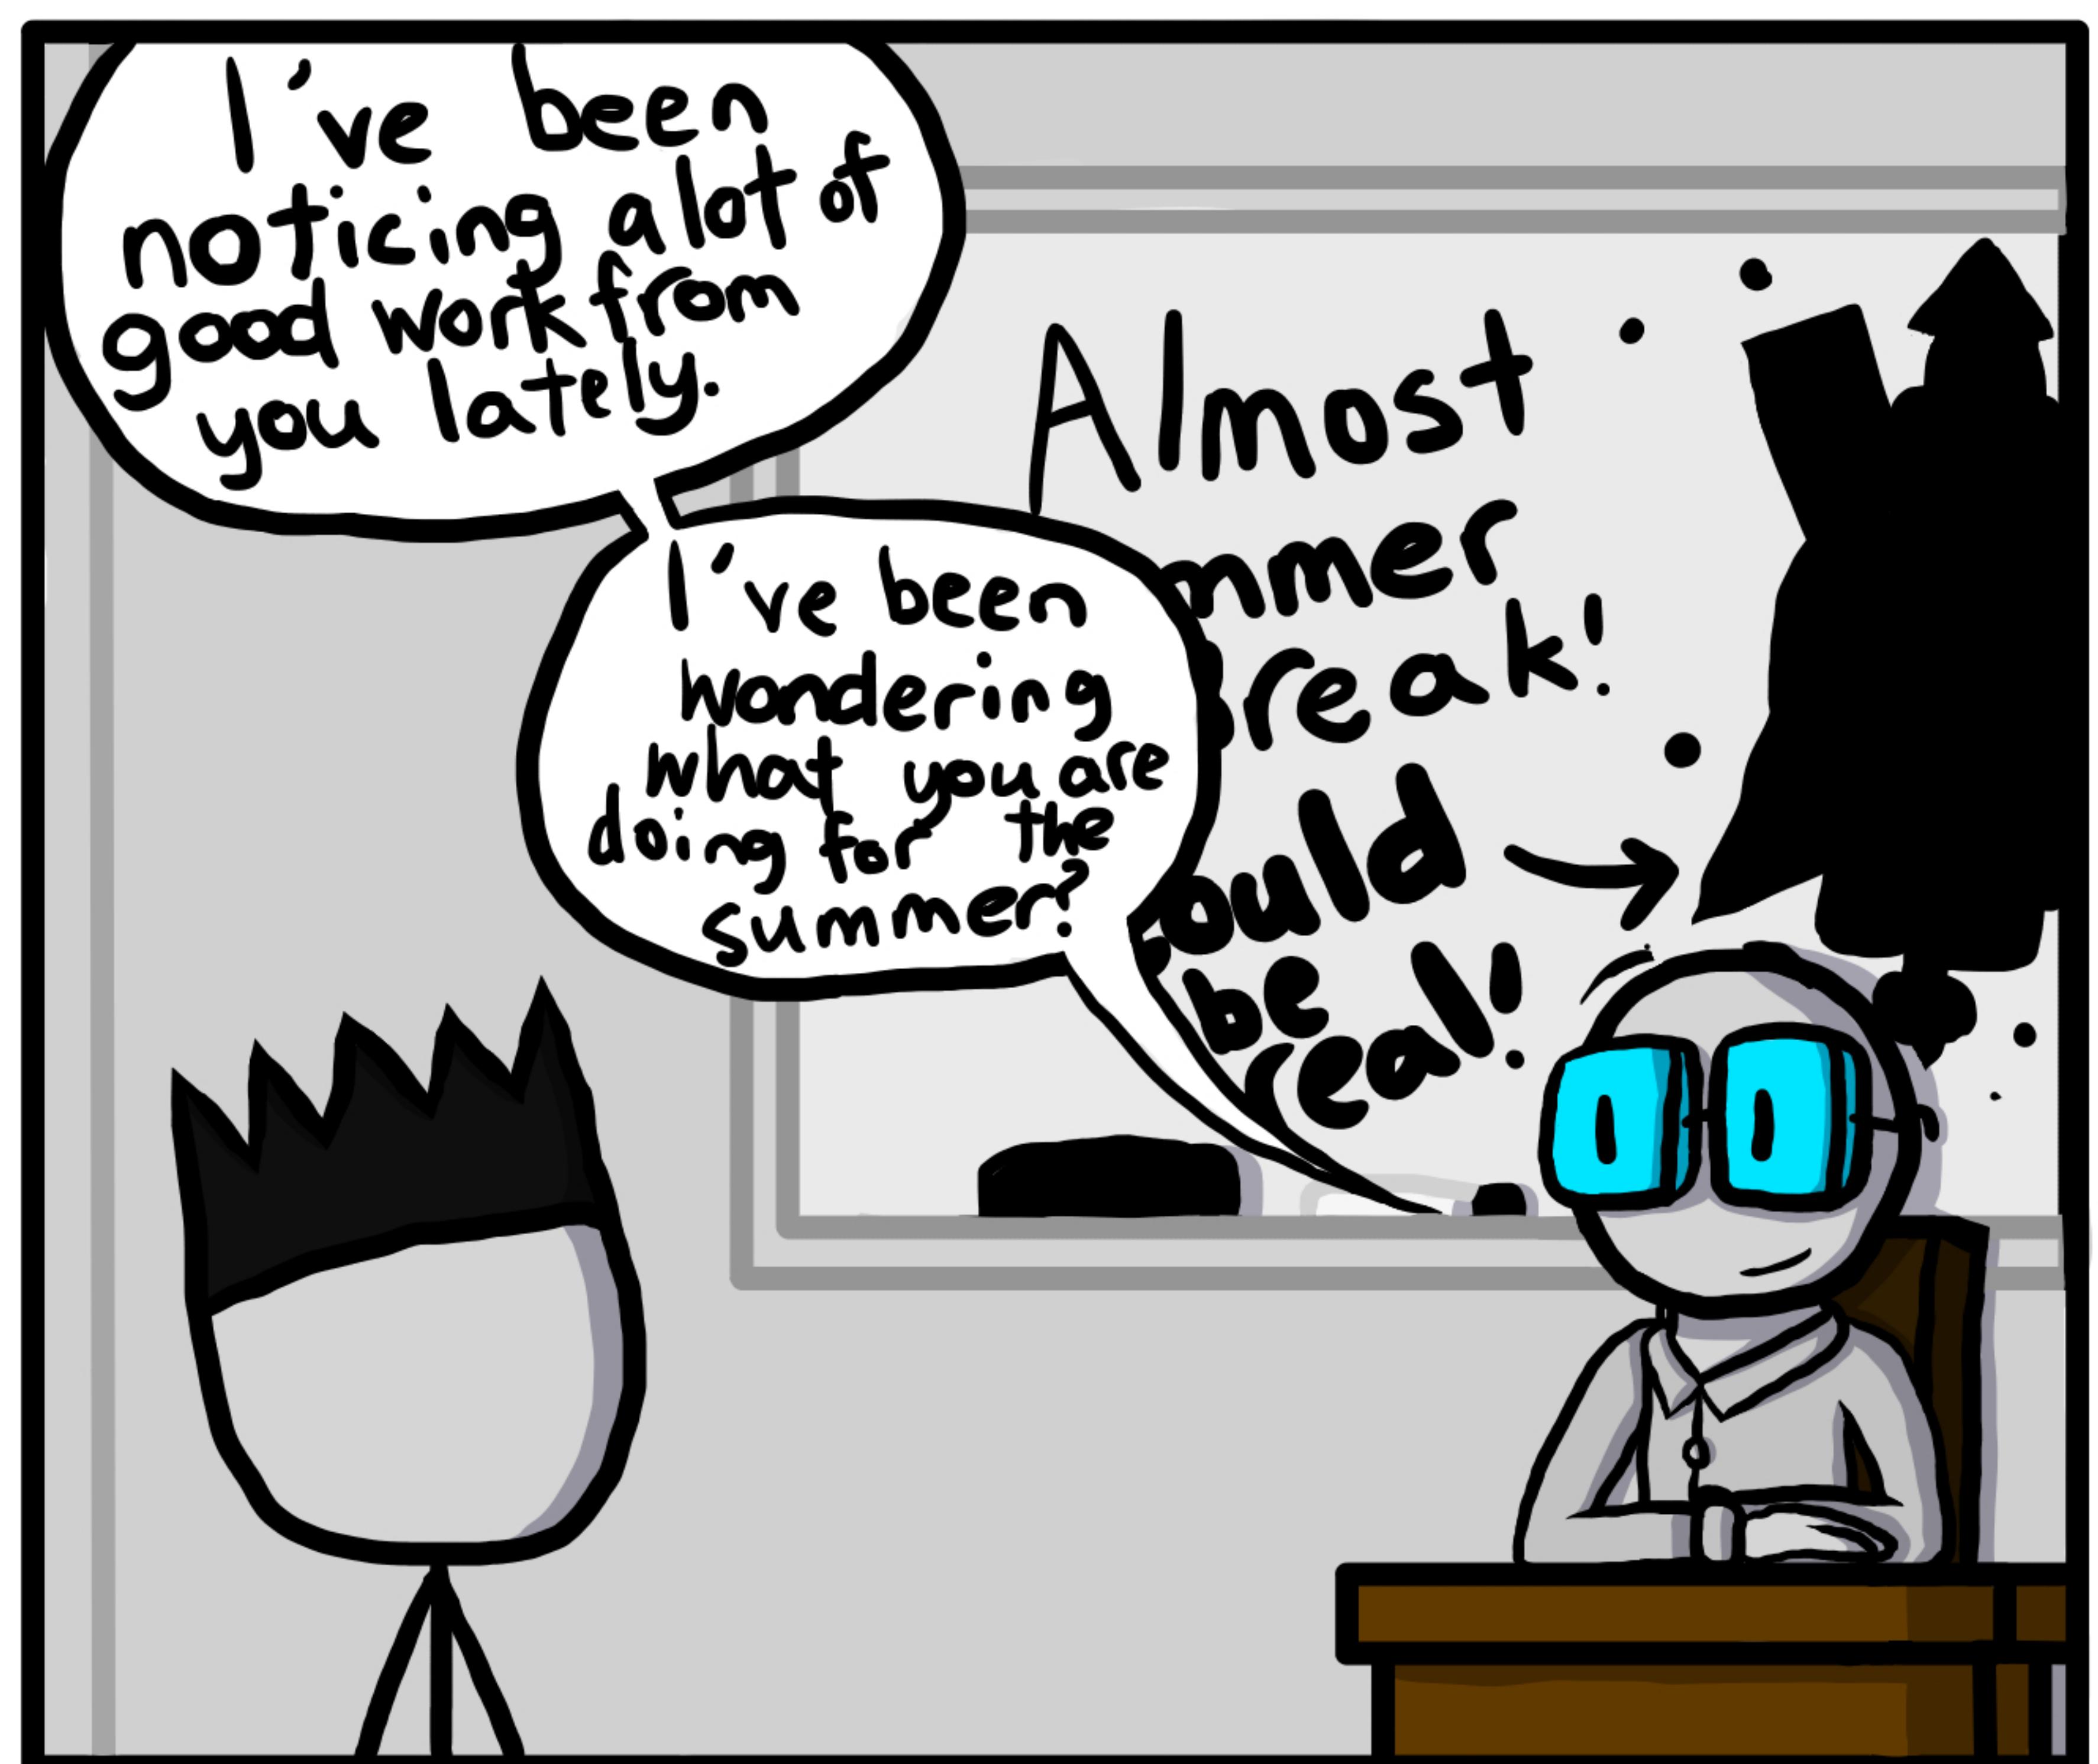

Chapter 2

The Mysterious Key

5 years ago,
I worked as a
professor uncovering
mysteries of the town.

To my discoveries,
all of the reports I
uncovered are fake.

Soon, I was thinking of retiring.

Suddenly, I
was told to
uncover my
last case.

Then it
shocked
me.

It was the
unsolved case
of Paperville!

It was something I had a lot of interests in.

Yeah, I can tell.

So I took the
case,

got permission
from the police
department,

and started
my expedition!

The cave I explored had
many abandoned structures,
ancient history, and treasures.
Though the only thing I was here for is an ancient key.

But all I found
was unnecessary
relics...

I was about
to quit.

Suddenly,

Thump!

I accidentally tripped and fell.

But then I remembered about the cave painting and came to my senses.

So please, I want you to go to the school tree and use this key! It's a favor I ask of you.

Eh, sure. I'll do it, seems pretty easy.

See you later, Mr. Sterkman.

Thump!

Good luck, Mark. May God help you restore peace to both world.

Later...

This key... It feels like something's resonating from it.

No, that's ridiculous! It could just be Mr. Sterkman's ramblings.

Plus, it seems like a very easy task!

Afternoon to you, Mark.

Hey Flarre!

Doing another one of your meditations?

Yeah, this is supposed to calm my anger.

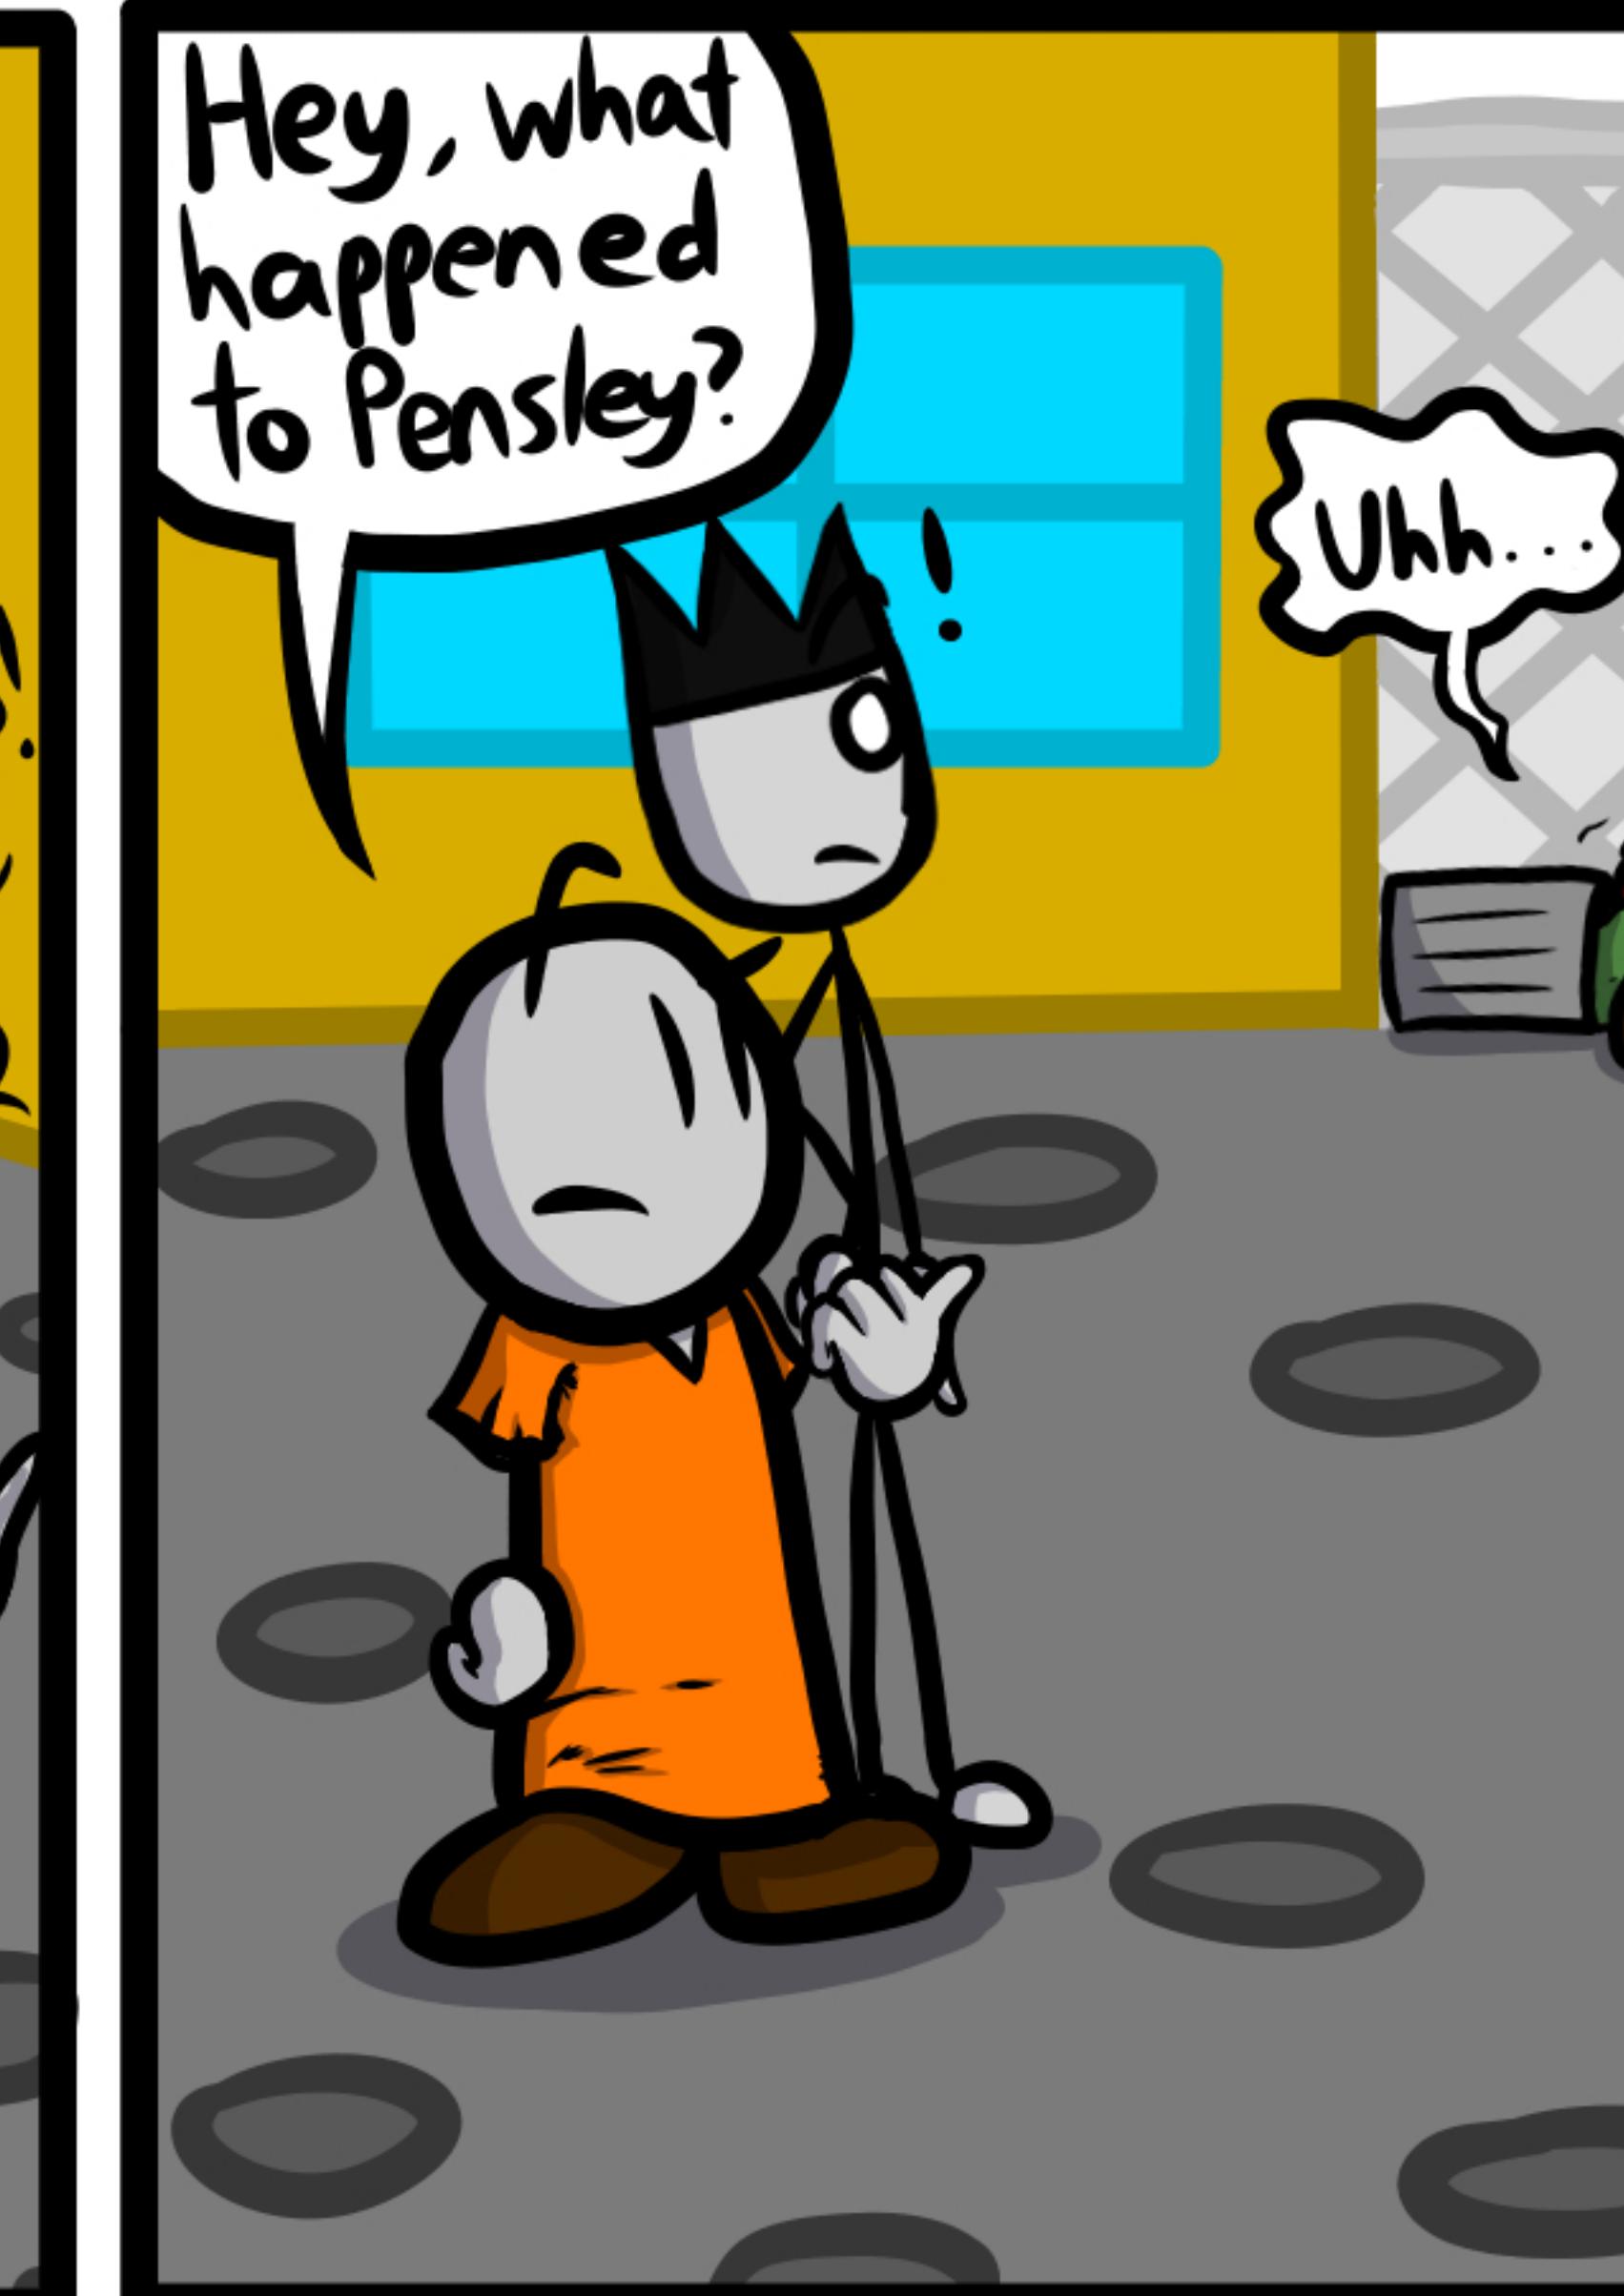

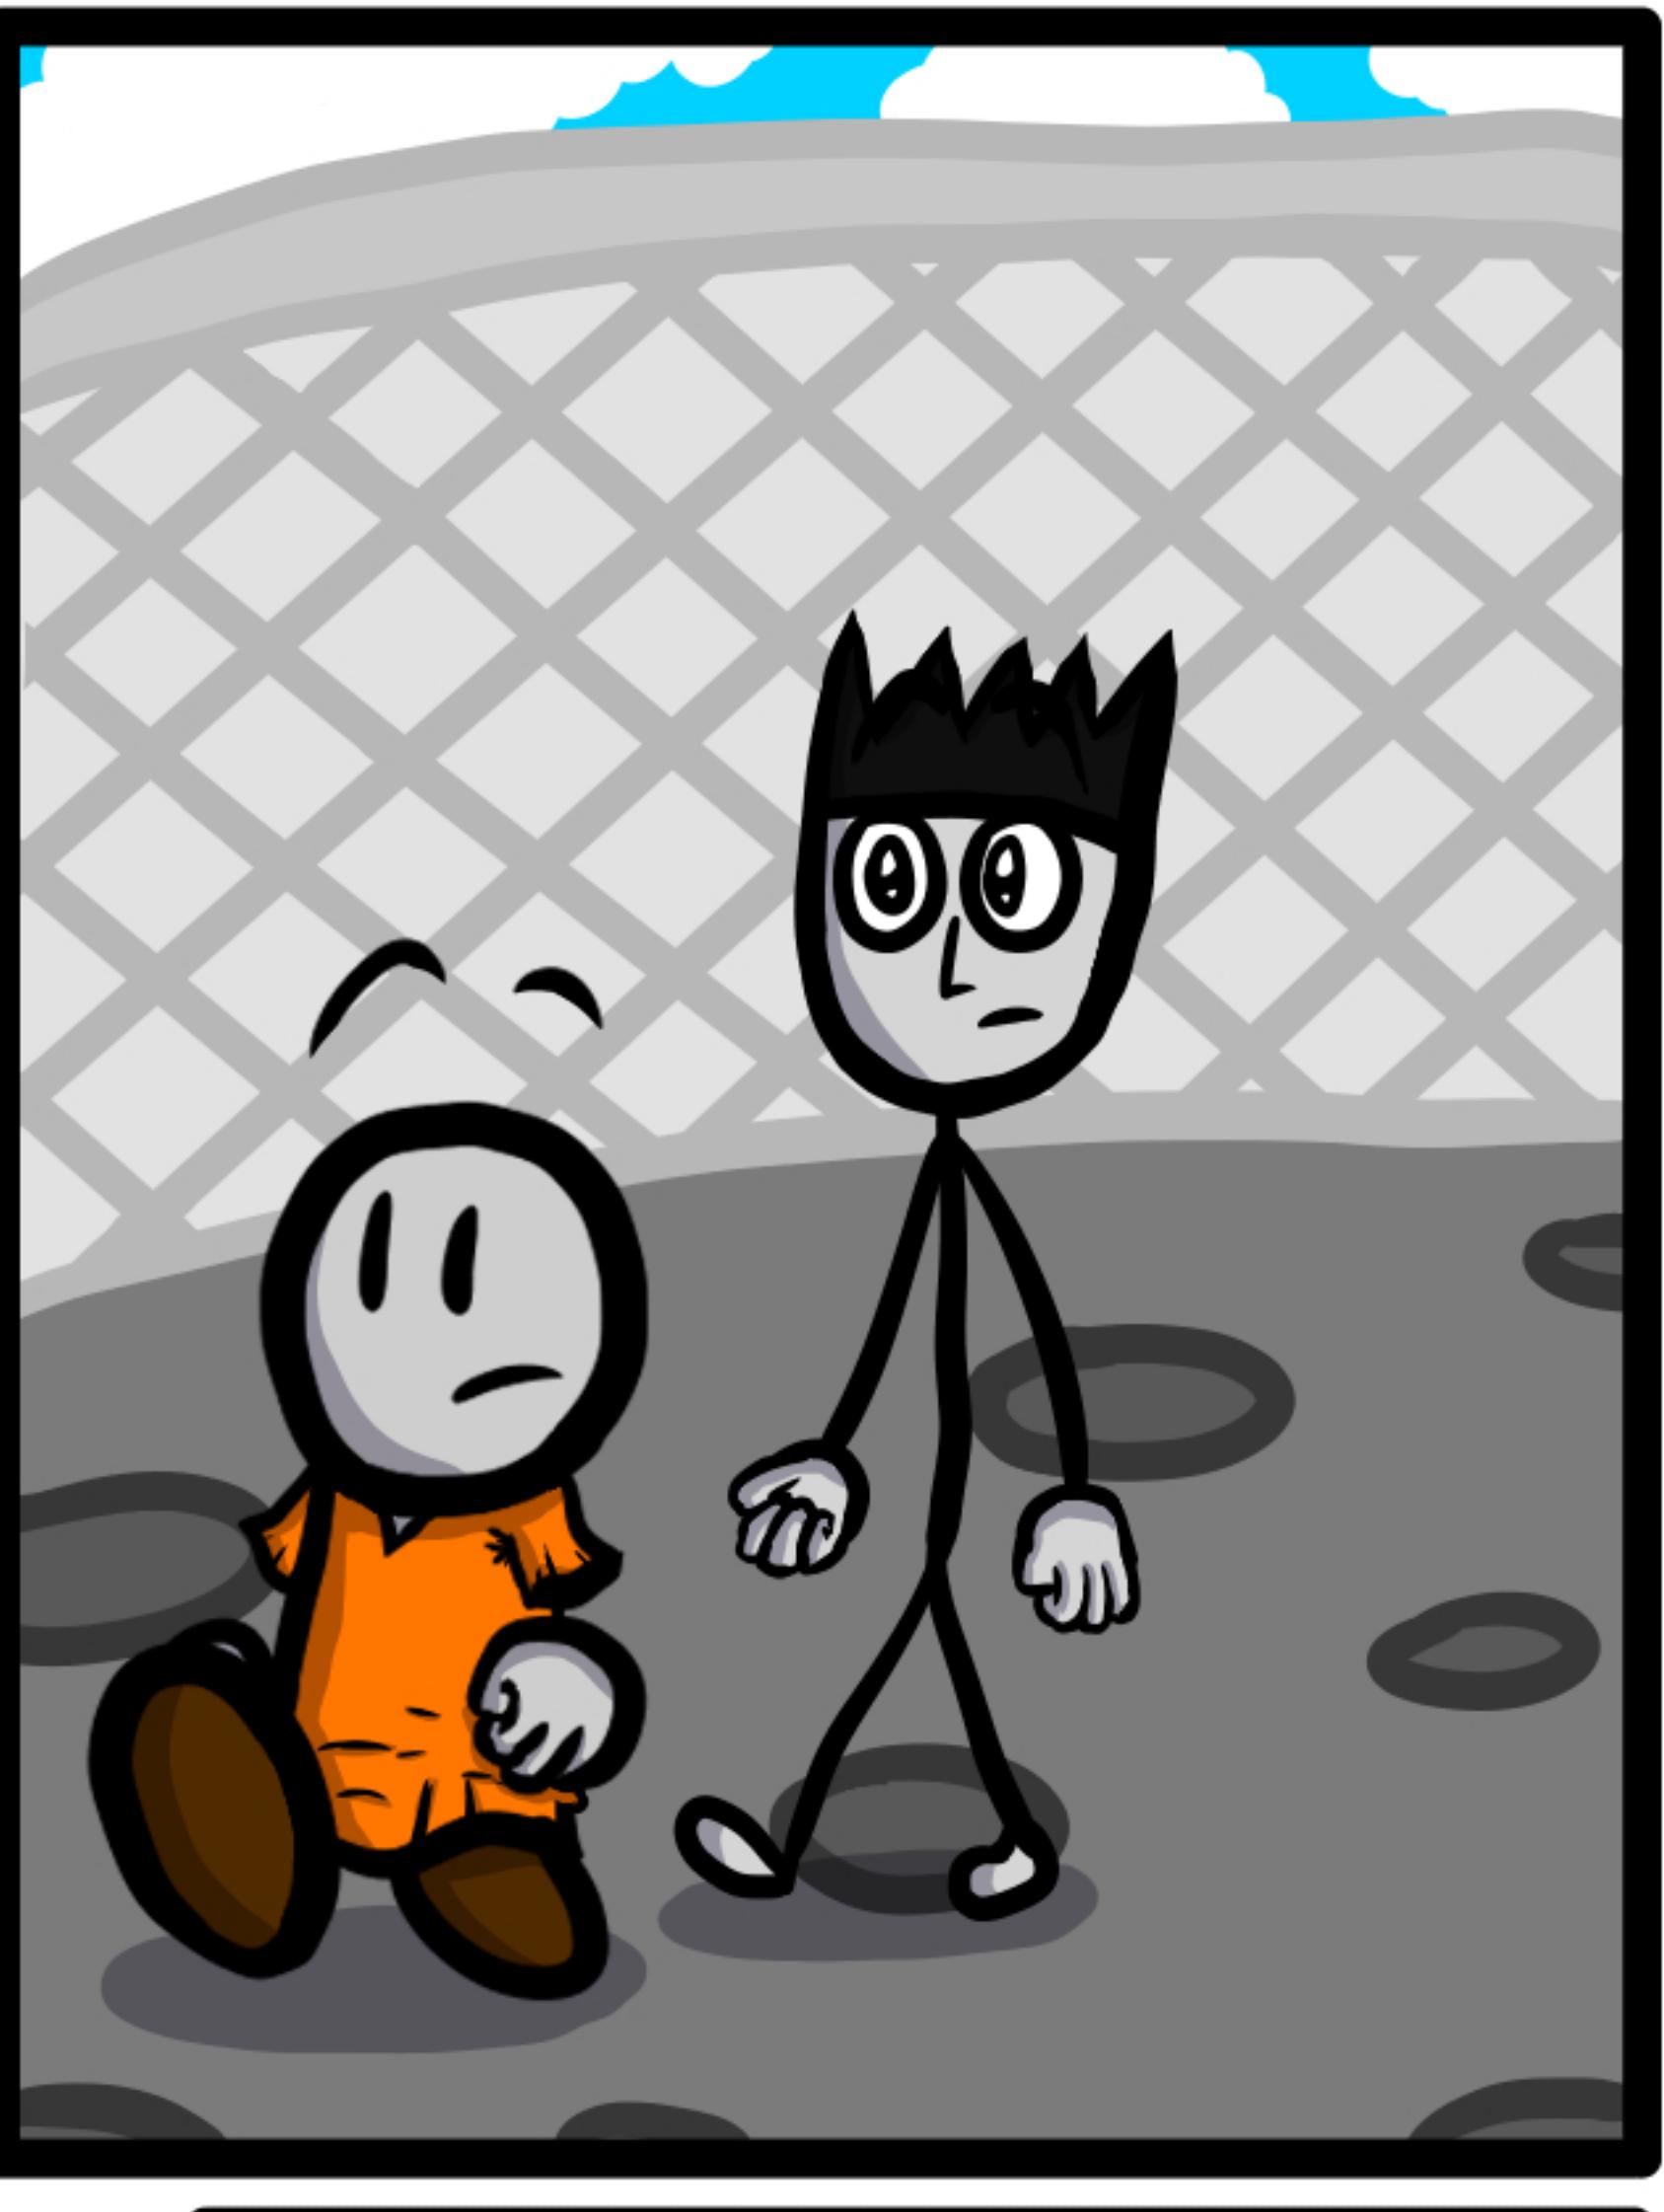

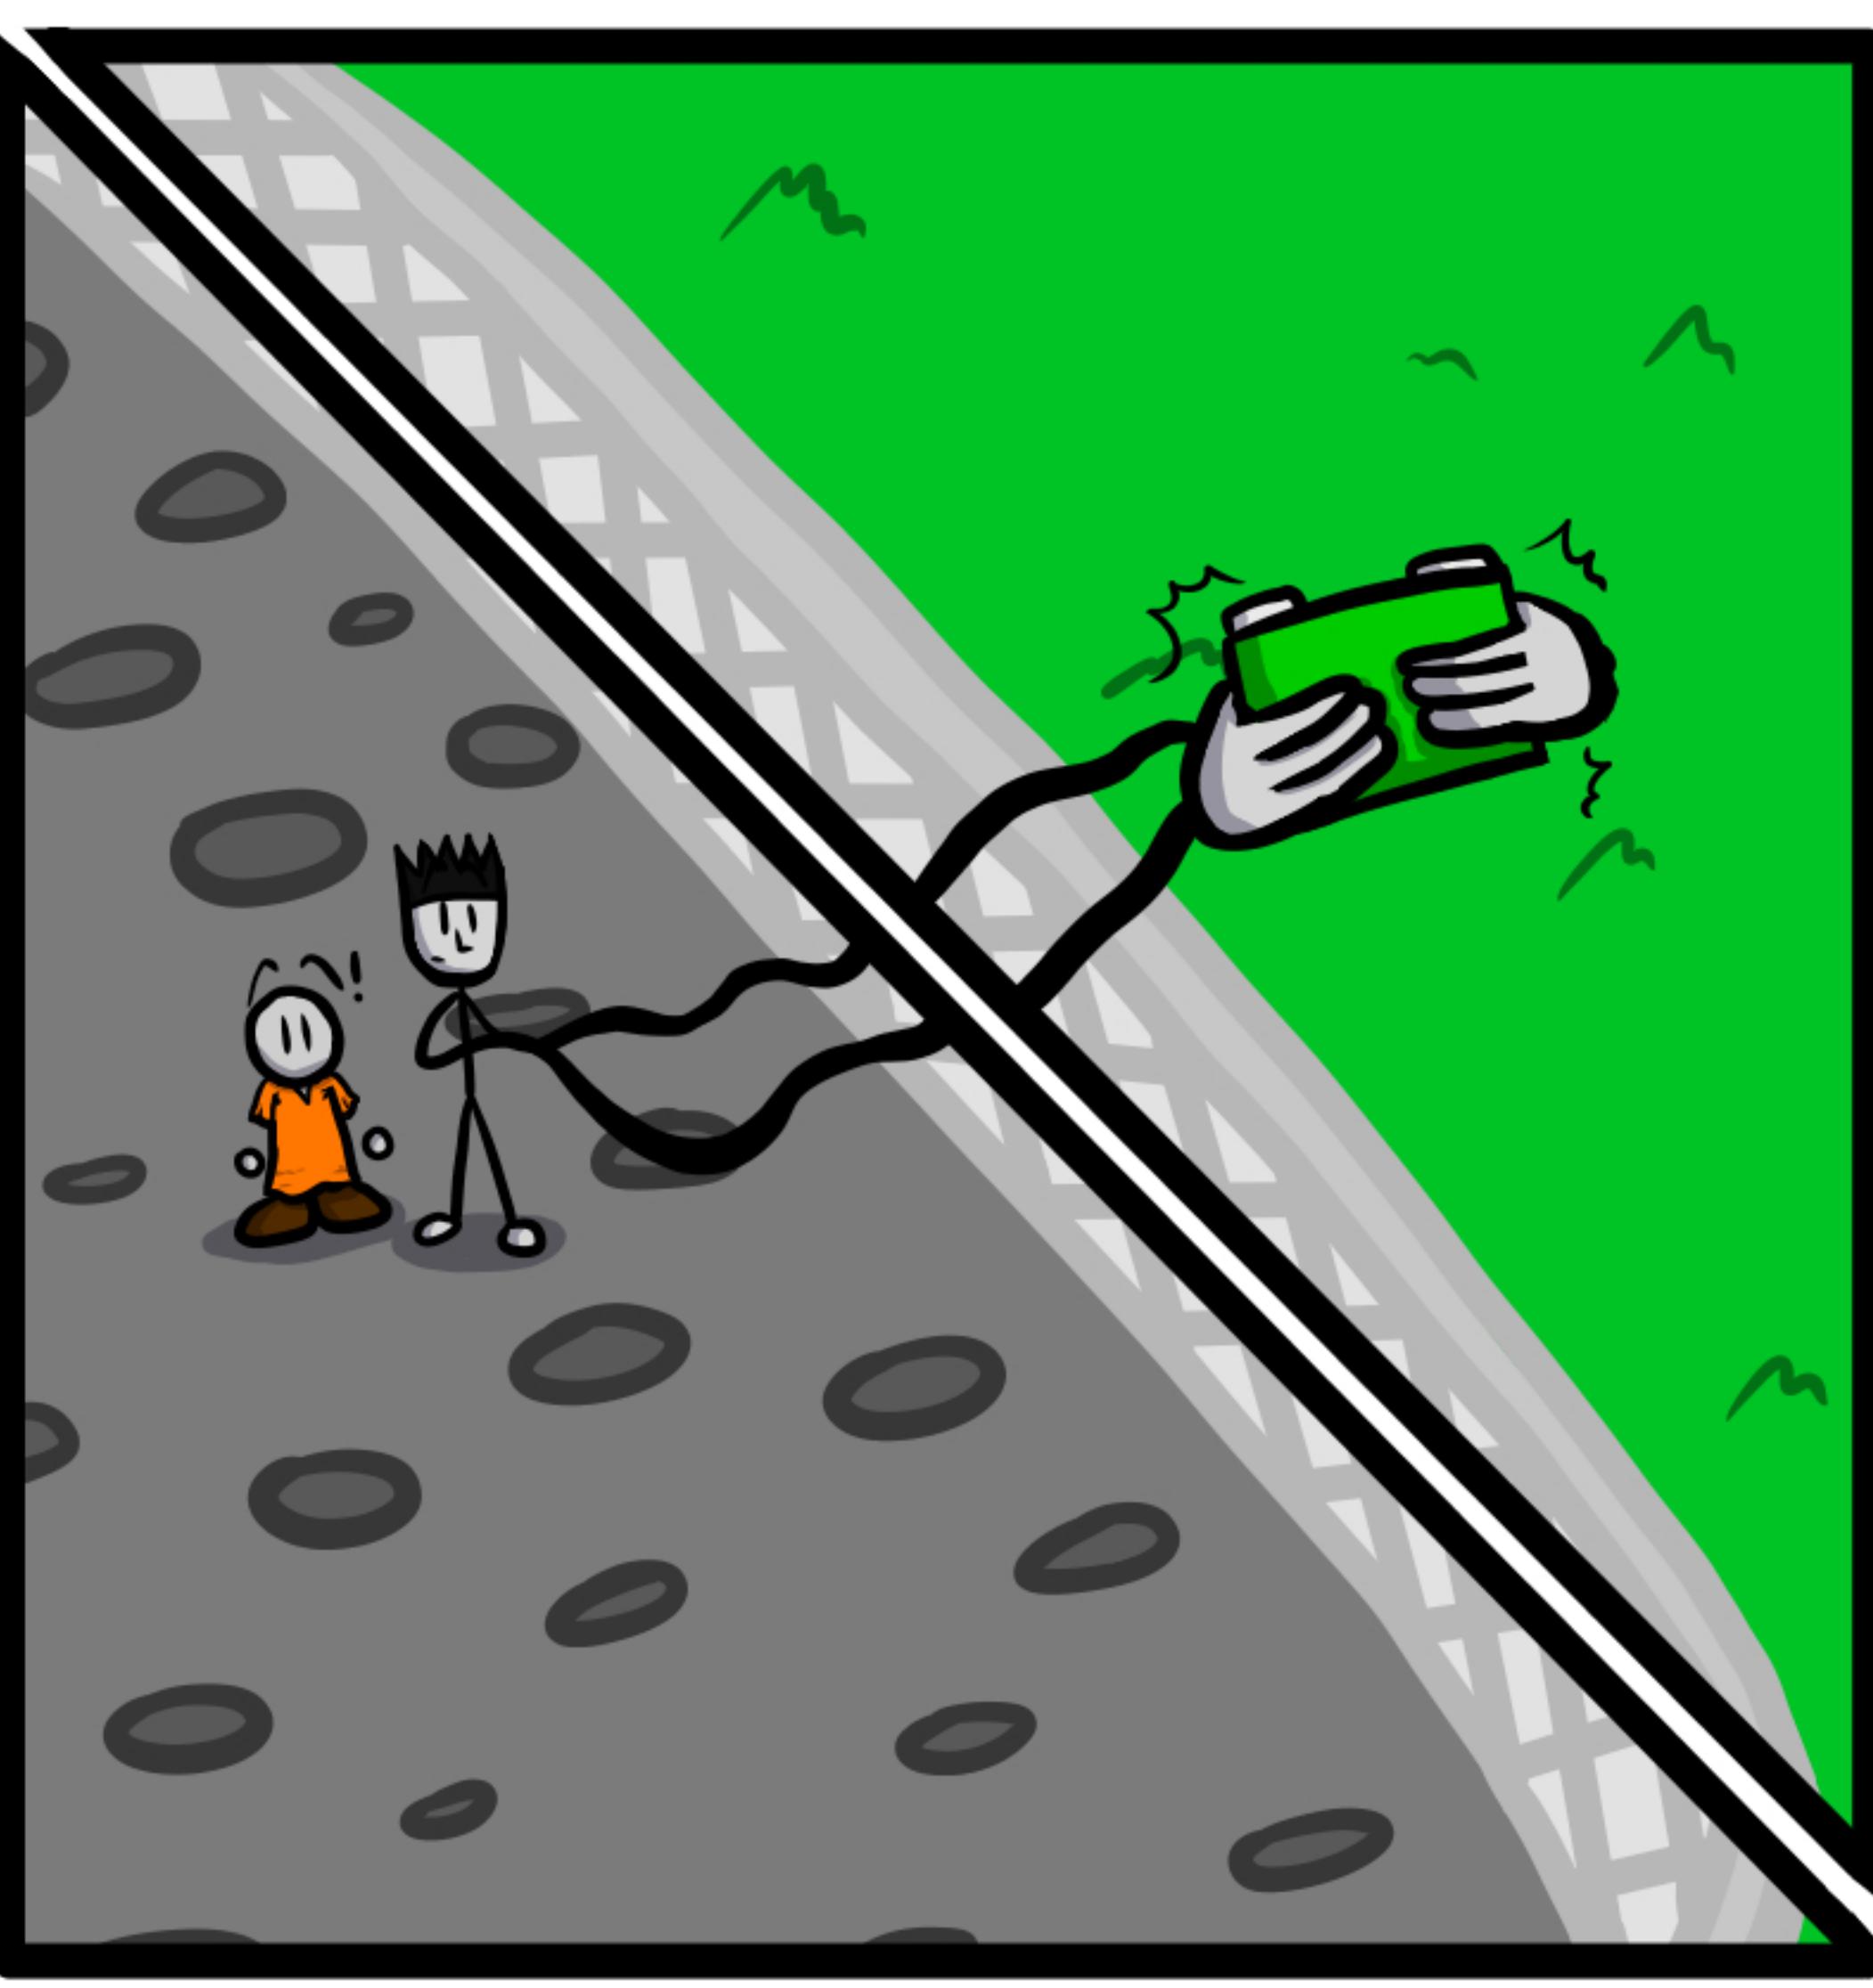

What... are you holding, Mark?

I got this from Mr. Sterkman, he asked me to help him with a task.

Mark, I do have to warn you, Mr. Sterkman has always been a strange fellow. I mean he goes on rambling about a world full of monsters and fairies in history class. I don't think you should take that task.
